DeBernardi Ruled Out Of Contest

The names of several would-be candidates for public office, including Vice-Mayor Michael R. DeBernardi of Daly City, will not appear on the June 4 primary election ballot.

That was decided on Monday when the State Senate voted down a bill designed to allow "new party" candidates to run.

Present law forbids candidates who have been registered in another party within the past year. The defeated Senate bill, authored by Alfred Alquist of San Jose, would have shortened the period to three months. The measure was designed to permit new members of the new Peace and Freedom and American Independent parties to qualify for the primary.

DeBernardi, who declared an intention to run for the Republican nomination in the Twenty-seventh Assembly District, was disqualified because he changed his party affiliation from Democrat to Republican only last May 22, according to records in the office of County Clerk John A. Bruning.

Second Arrest In Drug Case

Charles Guy McCauley, 30, subject of an area-wide search since the arrest of his wife last week, was apprehended on Sunday in Daly City and charged with possession of stolen property and attempting to pass a forged and stolen prescription for drugs.

McCauley's wife, Gina, had been arrested at the couple's apartment on Eighty-ninth Street last week after they allegedly tried to pass the prescription at a drug store in Daly City.

Five Fires: D.C. Chief Warns Do-It-Yourself Home Auto Mechanics

Daly City Fire Chief Herb Ritzmann has issued a warning to the city's "Do It Yourself" home auto mechanics in the wake of five major blazes caused by exploding gasoline within the last month.

Ritzmann blamed the five fires (three motorcycles and two cars) on "careless do-it-yourself home auto-mechanics" working on their vehicles inside garages.

Leaking gasoline and vapors emitted by engines being overhauled have been ignited by water heaters inside private garages in all cases, Ritzmann said.

And in all cases the garage has been well ventilated, fire investigators have noted.

"If these persons must work on their engines, they should do so outside—away from the building," the fire chief said.

In each of three fires damage has been more than $10,000, while in one the fire damages reached some $16,000.

"Luckily, no one was injured, however the victims lost their possessions, including irreplaceable photos and similar keepsakes," chief Ritzmann said, adding, "This is in addition to the inconvenience that the family must endure—and all because of someone's carelessness."

Two fires were within a couple of blocks of each other, according to reports.

Carnation's Firm Sues for Flooding

Another lawsuit, with the threat of still more to come, was filed in Superior Court on Monday by the owners of flood-battered Mazzanti Carnations Inc. of South San Francisco.

The latest suit, covering damage done by flood waters last January, asks $500,000. An earlier suit, filed last June, asked $91,000 for damage done by two previous floods.

In the action filed on Monday by attorney Angelo J. Scarpini, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mazzanti allege that, despite their repeated warnings and the existence of the earlier lawsuit, the conditions that caused the flooding were not corrected and were, in fact, made worse.

The January flood, the suit states, covered 100,000 square feet of carnation beds with about 30 inches of water, silt and rocks, destroying the crop of flowers. It also broke 250 panes of greenhouse glass and damaged greenhouse walls, according to the document.

Mr. and Mrs. Mazzanti ask $400,000 compensatory damages and $100,000 exemplary damages, contending that the maintenance of the alleged conditions was "wilful, reckless and oppressive."

Defendants are the developers of the Serramonte subdivision in Daly City, the owners of the 10-acre Haskins-Ferrando property in Colma, the county of San Mateo, the San Mateo County Flood Control District, and R. H. Macy & Co., another land developer.

BAYSHORE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Race Discrimination Charges Are Denied

School Chief Discloses D.A.'s Probe

By DON GRIERSON

An investigation by the San Mateo County District Attorney's office has failed to produce any evidence to substantiate charges of racial discrimination in Daly City's Bayshore School District, according to Superintendent Miss Natalie Lipman.

An investigation by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People's education committee has also apparently failed to substantiate the charges, Miss Lipman said, "since the investigators have failed to bring forth any findings."

NAACP officials requested the dismissal of the Garnett Robertson School principal, Miss Gail O'Grady, several weeks ago, after parents of four children at the school charged the principal with "extensive slapping of minority children, and humiliation of both the children and their parents."

The NAACP also charged the district has failed to provide supervised after-school recreational programs and special classes for handicapped children, and has exercised racial discrimination in the hiring of teachers.

District trustees asked County Superintendent of Education, 3,890 cars (December 1966) to 1,814 (December 1967).

ONE-WAY STREET

Dorchester Dispute Splits the Residents

The Dorchester Drive dispute in Daly City continues to split residents of the affected area right down the middle today. One called it a three-ring circus.

Controversy centers around the partial closing of two-way traffic on the residential thoroughfare, erection of a wooden barrier on a trial basis, and installation of a no-left-turn sign off Alemany Boulevard onto Dorchester Drive.

Monday night the Daly City council listened while both proponents and opponents of the new traffic pattern presented their sometimes heated views on the matter.

What the city council and staff have attempted to do, according to mayor Bernard Lyceet, is substantially cut down on the number of cars through the neighborhood between Alemany and Southgate.

Mayor Lyceet quoted several figures to the more than 50 persons attending the session, which were taken in December 1966 and again last year.

The installation of the sign and erection of the barrier has cut traffic flow down from some 3,890 cars (December 1966) to 1,814 (December 1967).

Counts on surrounding streets disclosed the cars had been dispersed to these other areas smoothly.

The accuracy of these counts, however, was disputed by some persons.

Mrs. Marion McGee pointed out that confused motorists were milling around at the end of the street near the barrier.

"It looks like a three-ring circus out there," she said.

When some questions could not be readily answered by the council during the study session, one person accused the council and staff of being "ill-prepared" for the hearing.

But an equal number of residents said the new traffic system on Dorchester Drive had substantially cut down through traffic, albeit causing some inconvenience to a small number of homeowners.

Ed O'Neil, of 81 Dorchester Drive, said he spoke for a "fair size group" living on the street.

Ten Seeking Elective Posts in D.C.

Ten persons will be vying for four posts in the upcoming April 9 Daly City general elections—two council seats, City Clerk and City Treasurer.

Although two persons have announced their withdrawal from the race—Albert E. Jenkins for council and Henry Angerbauer for city treasurer—their names will remain on the ballot, according to city clerk Anna Ohlendorf.

A legal technicality states that once a candidate files he (or she) cannot withdraw their name from a ballot.

All incumbents have entered the campaign, including councilmen Anthony Giammona and Frank Pacelli, City Treasurer Joseph Lewkowitz and City Clerk Anna Ohlendorf. Mrs. Ohlendorf is the only candidate not opposed.

ANTHONY A. GIAMMONA, incumbent councilman, was appointed to the county council in December 1966, replacing Albert Polonsky when the latter was named city attorney.

The former World War Two paratrooper was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan and moved to Daly City in 1961. He is currently an instructor at Westmoor High School.

Giammona is married and lives with his wife and three children in the St. Francis Heights section of the city.

He is a member of the California Teachers Association; American Federation of Teachers; Westmoor P-TA; Benjamin Franklin P-TA; Pari - mutual Employees Guild of California (Local 280), and is a former member of the Teamsters Union Local 65.

The incumbent councilman is also a parishoner at Holy Angels Church and Men's Club and the Daly City Chamber of Commerce.

In 1958-59 Giammona was on the Recreation Commission and was also a charter organizer of the Police Athletic League. He was chosen Coach of Year in San Mateo County in 1964.

Included in the organizations Giammona now serves on is the San Mateo County Greater Highway Committee; D.C. Historical Society. He is an alternate to the Association of Bay Area Governments, and is the Finance Chairman for the D.C. Boy Scouts and a delegate-at-large for the Serra District Boy Scouts of America.

Both incumbents share the same platform.

FRANK PACELLI is a native of San Francisco and moved to Daly City in 1955. He is married to Claire Quinn Pacelli and has five children.

Pacelli is a Westlake section resident and is in the stationery business in the Westlake Shopping Center. A veteran of World War II he served in Europe.

The incumbent is a graduate of Mission High School in San Francisco and the University of San Francisco (Class of '43) where he received a degree in political science. He also attended the American University of Biarritz, France where he studied labor relations, public speaking and Latin-American problems.

Pacelli was appointed to the Daly City council in October

1957, succeeding present municipal judge Paul Hupf. Since then he has been re-elected to the council twice—in 1960 and again 1964.

During his terms of office he has served in a number of key positions, including:

Twice mayor of Daly City (1960-61; 1965-66); chairman of the North County Sanitation District; Chairman of the North County Council of Cities; former president Peninsula Division of League of California Cities; State Director, League of California Cities; Mary's Help Hospital Board of Governors; Delegate to ABAG (an outspoken critic of the association); Chairman, Daly City's 50-year Anniversary.

In addition, he is affiliated with Our Lady of Mercy Church and has held numerous chairmanships in various activities and charitable drives, including:

North County Heart Fund Drive; Boy Scouts' Sustaining Membership Drive; Our Lady of Mercy Men's Club; Veterans of Foreign Wars; Daly City Friends of Library; USF Alumni Association and Chamber of Commerce of Daly City.

Pacelli said his qualifications are his terms of office in local government (covering some ten years) "in which time Daly City has had rapid, yet orderly growth and has continued to provide all necessary services to the community."

"As a resident businessman of this city I will continue to strive to bring good government to all residents. Being a family man with five children, I am cognizant of problems concerning today's youth and their needs," Pacelli said.

In a joint statement, both councilmen revealed their platform during the upcoming campaign:

"There are many things that must be continued in Daly City that have been initiated by the council in recent years. Continued improvement of the adult and youth recreational programs that have placed Daly City far ahead of other cities in the State; new library and recreation facilities for the older and newer sections of the city; continued improvement of water facilities and preparation for rapid transit in this city, including improved local transportation feeder system.

"The orderly resurfacing of streets, along with the implementation of the General Plan with particular attention to areas around the BARTD station and Mission Street from the top of the hill to the bottom of the street, must likewise continue.

"All of this must be done with the fiscally responsible policy of 'pay as you go' initiated by the incumbent council."

LOUIS (LOU) PAPAN is a 39-year-old realtor and insurance broker who resides at 40 Northgate Court with his wife, Irene, and three children—John (8), Virginia (6) and Diane (4).

A former FBI agent, he was born in Springfield, Massachusetts and graduated from Syracuse (New York) University with a bachelor of arts degree in economics in 1951.

He served as an enlisted man in World War II and as an officer in the Korean Conflict. In 1955 he graduated from the FBI academy in Quantico, Virginia, serving as a special agent in the Chicago and San Francisco offices until 1958.

Papan said it was at this time he decided to make the Bay Area his home and became a partner in the firm of Riccardi & Papan Real Estate and Insurance.

Papan intends to give special attention to the "unique and individual problems of our neighborhood as well as to city-wide problems."

"As a realtor I am acutely aware of what the public desires in the residential community. The shortcomings of our existing transportation system has long been a subject of much talk, but little improvement," Papan said. "As the BARTD system comes closer to completion, time for decisive action grows short."

Papan also hit at recreation in Daly City ("especially for adults") and noted "recreation has not received the attention it should, considering our steady growth in population."

"Existing facilities are not being utilized to their fullest potential nor are sufficient efforts being made to add more facilities," he said.

New businesses must also be encouraged to come to Daly City, Papan said, in order for the city's tax base to be broadened, thus relieving the tax burden on local homeowners.

Papan is a member of the Commonwealth Club of California; Society of former F.B.I. agents; American Legion; California Association for Neurologically Handicapped Children; Amity - Seal - Rock Lodge F.A.M.; Member of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church on Brotherhood Way in San Francisco; Real Estate Board, and American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association.

MRS. ANNA OHLENDORF, the incumbent City Clerk, has served 12 years in local government in Daly City, first as deputy and acting City Clerk for six years.

Mrs. Ohlendorf said she will "continue to bring to the office sound business methods in order to fulfill the functions as set forth in the government code."

Her administrative experience has equipped the incumbent clerk to maintain an office of maximum efficiency and service to the public, Mrs. Ohlendorf's supporters point out.

THEFTS TOLD

Louise R. Benson of 1481 Sequoia Avenue, San Bruno, has reported to police the theft from his residence of a movie camera and a radio.

Total value of the loss, according to reports filed with police, was estimated at $325.

Born in Daly City and a lifelong resident of the area, she has been active in many community service projects, including the D.C. Chamber of Commerce; D.C. Navy Mothers; North Peninsula Circle of Florence Crittenton Home; past secretary of Friends of Daly City Library; officer in the Woodrow Wilson and Jefferson High School PTA's.

Mrs. Ohlendorf is also a member of the International City Clerk's Association, and currently president of the County Association of Bay Area City Clerks.

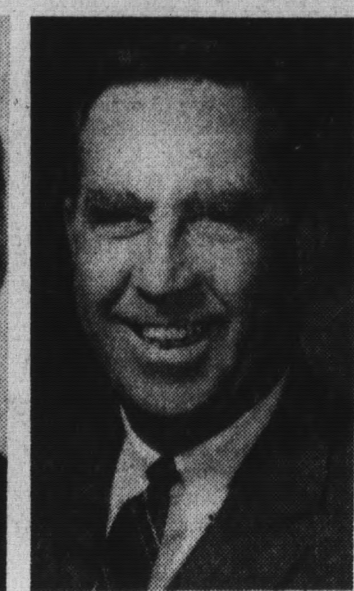

Married to Elmer H. Ohlendorf for 31 years, she has a married daughter, three grandchildren and a son now serving with the U.S. Navy in Vietnam.

Callans Fail in S.S.F. Council Bid To Reduce Lots in Westborough

Noonan Fears A Resale

Developers of the Westborough Planned Community in South San Francisco made an unsuccessful last minute attempt Monday to obtain lower floor area requirements for houses in the new West Park 3 Subdivision.

Thomas and Mike Callan urged the council to lower single-family dwelling requirements from 1,500 square feet to 1,000 square feet, and requirements for duplex buildings from 1,000 to 650 square feet "in order to broaden the potential market."

However, after hearing a lengthy rebuttal from City Attorney John Noonan, councilmen enacted the Planned Community Ordinance with the original requirements, and allowed for future "modifications" if the developers demonstrate that deviations "are consistent with the over-all character and design of the planned community."

Noonan pointed out that the developers themselves set the standards for the Westborough Community four years ago, and houses in the already-completed West Park Units One and Two have the 1,500 square foot requirement.

"If we arbitrarily undercut the planning requirement at this point, we would in effect be destroying the planned community," Noonan said.

"The ordinance contains provisions for individual exceptions where warranted, and I personally feel that is as far as the council can go at this point," he said.

"If such drastic changes were incorporated, the whole thing would have to be returned to the Planning Commission for review," Noonan said.

The city attorney expressed fears that the developers, Caesar-Callan Homes, Inc., are planning to subdivide the 160-acre parcel and sell it to other developers in smaller parcels.

"If that happened, the city's only protection would be in this

Shells Halt Firefighters In S.S.F.

South San Francisco firemen were hampered by exploding shotgun shells and reloading powder in a blaze which caused an estimated $8,000 damage to an Alhambra Drive residence Monday afternoon.

Firemen said they had to wait until a series of explosions subsided before they could break into a basement room at the home of Gerald Ewalt, 404 Alhambra, where the fire broke out about 4 p.m.

Authorities said Ewalt's teen-aged daughter, nine-year-old son and the family dog were in the house when the fire started.

The two children fled from the house, but the dog crouched beneath a chair, and was later rescued by firemen. They battled the blaze for about two hours. Damage to the house was estimated at $6,000, and to contents, $2,000.

Cause of the fire was not determined, but it apparently started in the room which contained the shells and gunpowder, firemen said.

ARRANGEMENTS

Under sponsorship of the Daly City Recreation Department, classes in Flower Arranging have been launched at the War Memorial Community Center, teaching fundamentals of traditional, modern and oriental arranging. Classes meet each Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Noonan pointed out the city has spent thousands of dollars in connection with planning the Westborough development, "and we also have an obligation to protect the investments of homeowners in the West Park One and Two tracts."

The Callans argued that the 1,500-square-foot requirement limits their market to "a narrow age and income group. You are limiting incoming residents to the 35-45-year-old group," they said, "because of the economic factors."

District Denies Charges

James Parmelee, a civil investigator with the district attorney's office, indicated in a letter to the board last week that his investigation has not proved any of the charges to be true.

Parmelee also said he has received no substantiating evidence from the NAACP investigator, Benjamin James.

In a letter to James three weeks ago, the deputy district attorney requested that the NAACP representative "advise the district in writing as to results, if any, from your investigation."

James did not reply to the letter, according to Miss Lipman, and the district has concluded that "all the complaints were without merit."

Board President Jesse Morales and other district trustees indicated this week they have "no intention of dismissing Miss O'Grady, now or in the future."

Mrs. Richard Barnes, chairman of the San Francisco NAACP Education Committee, said today her organization will continue to pursue the matter after further consulting the parents involved.

There are still several avenues open for further investigation of the situation, including the possibility of filing a "Title Six" complaint under the 1964 Civil Rights Act, she said.

Such a complaint would be addressed to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. She said the NAACP will also consider filing a complaint with the California State Fair Employment Practices Commission.

"It is amazing what a difference it made to people to be able to see what an Abyssinian looks like," she wrote in a letter to Editor and Publisher of the Post, J. Hart Clinton.

A friend in San Bruno looked at one of the cats which someone called about, she noted, "and it was indeed an Abyssinian, though not the right one."

Mrs. Lucas would appreciate further leads — persons with potentially useful information should call 415-761-3777 or 359-3852.

THIS IS 'SABU'

Abyssinian Cat Still Lost—But Hope Noted

Sabu, the lost Abyssinian cat, remains separated from his owner, Mrs. Eleanor Lucas of Sacramento.

As reported in last week's Post, the rare German feline has been missing in the Daly City-Pacific area since February 12.

Mrs. Lucas reported this week a cat answering Sabu's description has been noted "hanging around the homes of other cats, where he has found food."

She said, "We had several calls from readers of the Post (and) a few of them gave us definite hope that he is still in the (area) of Fairmont."

accept turning the street back to its previous state as had been demanded by some residents two weeks ago.

O'Neil told the council he had lived on the street for the past seven years and knew the street was a busy one when he purchased his home.

"I did not realize it would turn into a drag strip," he said, asking the council and staff for a "fair and just solution to the problem."

Asked why the State Division of Highways installed the "no left turn" signs from Alameda Boulevard onto Dorchester, Mayor Lyett said it was because of the number of accidents at that intersection.

"I consider that street (Dorchester) to be one of the most dangerous in the city," Lyett said.

A small girl was seriously injured on Dorchester last year when she was struck by a passing car.

The council decided to take immediate action following the incident and one-way signs and the barrier were put up.

City Manager Edward Frank said the street has been a "historically bad one" and explained that several residents of the neighborhood had asked for an evaluation of the traffic situation.

Frank offered a four-point program to replace the current disputed system, including:

Removal of the one-way street signs; installation of three-way stop signs at Dorchester and Westbrook; retain the no-left-turn sign, and; heavily patrol the area with police.

Viet Vets To Get Special Tax Breaks

Daly City Clerk Anna Ohlendorf has issued an informational bulletin regarding new legislation which adds Vietnam conflict veterans to the list of persons qualifying for certain tax exemptions.

In the bulletin, Mrs. Ohlendorf points out that the 1967 session of the state legislature approved the exemption ($1,000) for those persons serving in the military from August 5, 1964, to the present.

She said the city council has made it possible to file for these exemptions at the city hall, Nineteenth and Sullivan Avenues, Daly City.

Persons requiring additional information on the matter may telephone the city hall.

San Mateo County has mailed affidavits to all who received the exemption last year, however, those persons who will be filing for the first time may call on the City Clerk's Office for assistance, Mrs. Ohlendorf said.

Jeff Students Said Eating Better Now

All Jefferson Union High School District cafeterias are running in the black, but more important to parents and students, each school cafeteria reported the sale of lunches is on the upswing.

Some 24,675 additional Type A lunches have been sold to the students from September 1967 to January 1968, compared to September 1966 to January 1967.

Breaking these figures down percentage-wise by schools JUHSD Cafeteria Supervisor Ann Barreto reported the following percentage increase: Jefferson 6.7 per cent, Westmoor 9.14 per cent, Oceana 8.36 per cent, Terra Nova 6.85 per cent.

During the September 1967 to January 1968 period, Jefferson cafeteria sold 33,281 lunches compared to 22,449 lunches sold a year ago during the comparable period; Westmoor sold 47,442 lunches compared to 43,392 lunches in the 1966 period; Oceana 22,121 to 18,509, and Terra Nova 19,674 to 13,493.

The Type A lunch, which is both the hot lunch and the bag lunch, must contain one-third of the nutritional requirements of the child per day, plus some vitamin C every day and vitamin A at least twice a week.

This means that every lunch, which costs 40 cents must contain at least one-half pint of milk; three-quarter cup of fruit or vegetables in raw or cooked form; two ounces of protein-rich food, such as meat, cheese, fish, eggs, or beans; one serving of bread or rolls and two teaspoons of butter.

All schools on the Type A program are partially reimbursed by the state on milk and receive surplus commodities such as butter, cheese, turkeys, ground beef, chicken, beans and flour. On the Type A program larger portions (one-half to one-third more) are served at high school level to meet the nutritional requirements of teen-agers.

Mrs. Barreto stressed the importance of the flour, as all of the cafeterias do all their own baking, with the students enjoying the benefits such as breads, hot rolls and desserts such as pumpkin pie, strawberry shortcake and pineapple upside down cake, which also happens to contain the three-quarter cup of fruit requirement.

The bag lunch, which remains the same each day, contains a cheeseburger, milk, potato salad, orange juice and raisin cup cake.

With menus standard for all the schools, invidious comparisons can no longer be made by students, but Mrs. Barreto must constantly be watching for signs of increasing popularity in one dish and decreasing popularity in another.

She pointed out that enchiladas is a very popular dish this year, while a few years ago, she almost dropped it from the menu. On warm days the bag lunch is most popular, as the students like to take the bag lunch and eat outside.

Since Mrs. Barreto's appointment as district cafeteria manager this fall, all the food, which is purchased locally, has been purchased on a district-wide basis, likewise for all the supplies.

This plan, plus the standardized menus and the two types of lunches, available in all schools, has resulted in the cafeterias all operating in the black for the first time, a fact which brought Mrs. Barreto and her staff the commendation of the Board of Trustees at a recent meeting.

Coast Church Will Hear Missions Talk

The Rev. James Siefkes, Western Regional Director of Stewardship for The American Lutheran Church will speak at both morning services of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Pacifica March 10.

Rev. Siefkes, working out of offices in Palo Alto, is responsible for interpreting and assisting the over-all mission and program of the American Lutheran Church in 500 congregations located in the Western portion of the United States.

On Sunday morning, he will be speaking on the changes and developments in the way the Christian Church is seeking to carry out its work on the contemporary American scene in this latter third of the 20th century. His topic will be, "Reflections on Mission."

Bethlehem holds Sunday morning worship services at 9 and 11 a.m. every Sunday with Sunday school classes at 10 and 11 a.m.

The church is located on Hickory Boulevard and Beachview in Pacifica.

D.C. Man Shoots Self

A 59-year-old Daly City man, crippled since he fell down an elevator shaft four years ago, took his own life Friday afternoon by shooting himself with a Luger pistol, the coroner's office reported this morning.

The body of Lawrence Ray Walters, 59, of 1127 Brunswick Avenue, was found in a family room by his wife Doris, when she returned from a visit to a beauty salon around 4 p.m.

Mrs. Walters told officers that although her husband had been depressed, he appeared in relatively good spirits when she left him around 1 p.m. She said he had suffered a spinal injury in the fall, and had suffered a heart attack eight weeks ago, according to Coroner's Investigator Charles Zimmerman.

Westlake Church Wardens Elected

G. Reece Middleton of Pacifica and Bernard O'Hare of Westlake have been elected co-wardens by the 16-member Executive Council of St. Martin's Episcopal Church in Westlake.

The Bishop's Committee, recently elected by members of the mission church at an annual meeting, chose John Watson as church treasurer and Dorothy Russo as clerk-secretary.

Col. Edward Berry was re-elected finance chairman, and also will head the newly organized pledge advisory committee, with Alice Ahmed as pledge secretary and John Boghosian in charge of finances. Assisting are Betty Casey, John Nakae and Jack Burkhard.

Nakae will serve as chairman of member visitation. Eric Olson, John Watson and Werner Herrmann are in charge of worship, serving as a liaison between the Executive Council and the active church members, who assist in services as acolytes, ushers and lay readers. Mrs. Harry E. Smith has been her second year as liaison for parish events.

This includes activities of the teen-age youth groups and church school, as well as the Episcopal churchwomen, the Altar Guild and the St. Mary's Guild.

Jack VanZandt is chairman of Christian education and parish organizations.

Howard Kourik heads the building and grounds committee and Barbara Busetto will assist with public relations, publicity and publications.

The X-ray mobile unit is located directly in front of the New England Men's Shop, in the parking area fronting Alemany Boulevard.

The X-ray program is under the direction and supervision of Association Official William Montgomery who urges everyone 18 years of age and over to have a chest X-ray for the detection of early signs of T.B., lung cancer, emphysema and other respiratory disease.

Dyer Case Is Closed

Councilman Jess Salmon of Brisbane said today he anticipated the outcome last Friday in which suspended Police Chief Lillard Dyer resigned and pleaded guilty to misdemeanor charges.

Salmon said, "I guess I kind of anticipated the outcome, but I did not want to make any further comments on the matter because it was a touchy situation."

Salmon said the suspension of Dyer had put the city "in a bind" as far as hiring a replacement for the position.

"I feel this did not hurt my political stance in the community — at least I hope not," he commented.

Dyer pleaded guilty Friday to misdemeanor charges of pocketing money paid by citizens for accident reports and by policemen for shoulder patches.

Superior Court Judge Melvin E. Cohn ordered Dyer's immediate dismissal. Dyer's attorney said the chief had tendered his resignation Thursday for action by the City Council.

Dist. Atty. Keith Sorenson asked dismissal of a felony indictment charging embezzlement. Judge Cohn agreed.

Sorenson explained that less than $100 was involved in the charges to which Dyer pleaded guilty.

Dyer had been Brisbane's police chief for three years. He is now employed at Van Water and Rogers in Brisbane.

B'nai Israel Names Cantor

Congregation B'nai Israel in Colma has announced the appointment of Henry Greeberg as Cantor.

Greenberg assumed his post Friday at Sabbath services conducted by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore.

Temple Judea Sets Purim Celebration

The celebration of Purim is to be observed at Temple Judea at special Sabbath services, March 15, at 8 p.m. The service is forty-five minutes long and is planned particularly for children, who are encouraged to bring noisemakers with them to use during the celebration.

Purim is a festival of rejoicing which celebrates the deliverance of the Persian Jews from their oppressor Haman, as told in the Biblical story of Esther. Friends of Temple Judea are invited to attend and participate in the service at the Temple on Brotherhood Way.

Valuable Golf Clubs Stolen

Two sets of golf clubs valued at more than $600 were taken from an automobile in a burglary at a South San Francisco apartment house sometime Friday or Saturday, police said.

Officers said the clubs, along with two carrying bags, were taken from the car of the owner, Mary Toblen of 935 El Camino Real.

The trunk lock was forced open, police said.

A television set and a jewelry box were taken from a Commercial Avenue apartment in another burglary sometime Saturday night, officers reported.

The apartment of Marie Ambler was entered while occupants were away.

Police said entrance was gained through forcing the lock on the front door. Total value of the property taken was estimated at $328.

Group Goes To Court

MORE (Many Others Requiring Extra), an anti-garbage citizens group in Brisbane, went to court Friday to force the City Council to put an initiative measure on the April 9 municipal ballot.

An alternative writ of mandamus was obtained by Luman C. Drake of MORE, ordering the council to comply or appear before Presiding Superior Judge Frank W. Rose at 9:30 a.m. March 8 to explain why not.

Drake's group obtained enough signatures on a petition to qualify the measure, which would quadruple the fees paid by San Francisco scavengers for the use of Brisbane's bay-side dump, for the ballot. When the petition was certified, Mayor Dale E. With called a special meeting of the council for 5 p.m. February 28 to officially put the matter on the ballot. With and two other councilmen, Jess C. Salmon and Robert W. McLennan, failed to attend the meeting, however. Drake's petition alleges that they intentionally stayed away. They are regarded as the "pro-scavenger" bloc on the council.

MORE wants the scavengers to pay $500,000 a year instead of $125,000 and proposes that the additional money be used for municipal improvements.

Auto Breaks Down, Steal 2nd to Push

When their 1961-model car broke down early Sunday in San Bruno six youths from San Jose apparently determined that the best way to get it home was to push it with another auto.

So, according to San Bruno police, the group allegedly took the 1967-model car of Manuel Silva from in front of the San Bruno resident's home at 603 Green Avenue shortly before 3:10 a.m.

But even at that early hour, Silva's wife, Louisa saw the car being taken and called police.

Patrolman Thomas Kaufmann, in the police station at the time, heard the call and dashed out to head off the group. Green Avenue is two blocks from the police headquarters.

He stopped the pushing effort at the other end of Green Avenue, while 18-year-old Robert Maldonado, 256 North Sixth Street, San Jose, and 19-year-old James Reyes, 355 1/2 Jerome Street, San Jose, were in the Silva auto, a police spokesman said.

In the auto being pushed down the street were a 14-year-old and three 17-year-olds.

Maldonado and Reyes were arrested on auto theft charges. The others were juveniles and were cited into Hillcrest Juvenile Court.

'Hippies' Rob D.C. Drive-in

Two "hippie types" held up the Mission Drive-in Theatre at 500 Guttenburg Street in Daly City Sunday and fled after grabbing $100 from the cash register and some $17 from a box office attendant.

The attendant, Joseph L. Cronin, told police the pair walked up to the booth shortly before 10 p.m. and one of the men whipped out a nickel-plated automatic.

The gunman was described as bearded, wearing dark glasses, a merchant marine cap and dark clothing. His accomplice was vaguely described as wearing dark clothing.

After grabbing the loot, both men fled on foot into the darkness, Cronin told police.

Father-Son Event

"The Men in Their Lives" will be the honored guests of the Riordan Guild at an annual father-son Communion breakfast Sunday morning, following the 8 o'clock mass at Riordan High School.

Westlake's Mrs. Theodore Martin is chairman of the traditional repast, and she and the members of her committee have promised that it will be a hearty breakfast, indeed!

Daly City Postmaster and Riordan Fathers' Club President Vincent Murphy, in co-operation with breakfast chairman Edward Glischinski, has arranged to have Warren Cain, supervisory probation officer for the San Francisco County Juvenile Court, speak.

Reservations at $1.50 a person, may be purchased in the school office, according to Mrs. Clifford West.

Next Tuesday the guild will convene for its regular monthly session at 8 p.m. in Chaminade Hall. Brother John Samaha will narrate the film, "The Parable."

According to Mrs. West, the senior class mothers will be in charge of the refreshments during the social hour following the program.

THE FIFTY PLUS CLUB of Pacifica will forgo its annual Jiggs Dinner this year as the chief cook and club president Mrs. Edna Laurel Calhan will be in Mexico. Instead Vice President Mrs. Ora Valdivia has designated that there will be a Wearin' o' the Green on March 12.

TICKETS TO THE DALY CITY UNIT of the American Cancer Society Luncheon March 19 will be sold Friday and Saturday in the Cancer Society's Educational booth in the Westlake Mall, according to Mrs. Ernestine Tierney, representative for the local chapter.

Mrs. Eleanor Guisti, unit education chairman, is in charge of the luncheon, in the Lake Merced Clubhouse from noon to 2 p.m., with a special menu and entertainment provided by Purity Stores.

Volunteer Cancer drive workers and unit area chairmen will be hostesses and Eddie Ryan will be the master of ceremonies. Purity home economist Mindy Carr will give tips on home-making and provide new recipes.

According to Mrs. Tierney, tables or individual reservations will be accepted at the booth this week end or such reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Guisti, or the unit president, Mrs. Esther Ocampo. Tickets are available to all who make a $1 donation to the cancer drive.

APOLOGIES to Mrs. Glenn Germeshausen of the Vista Mar P-TA who was recently awarded an honorary Life Membership in that organization. Mrs. Germeshausen's name last week was mistakenly given as Mrs. Glen Forester in this column.

In preparation for the Vista Mar P-TA Book Fair, on the calendar for April 23, Miss Marjorie Tobias, school principal, has announced she will arrange a special period for the students to visit the book display during the school day, according to Mrs. Arlene Lowe. Parents attending open house observances at the school on the evening of the fair will be able to select and purchase books at that time.

MRS. MILLIE MACHENS has accepted the presidency of the Westlake Senior Citizens, following the resignation of Mrs. Marguerite Murphy, according to Willard Wagner, treasurer, publicity chairman and entertainment travel arranger.

Wagner reports that one of the first programs under the new leadership will be an excursion to Healdsburg to take the Prune Blossom tour through the Fitch Mountain, Alexander Valley, Geyserville, Asti and Dry Creek Valley areas.

The day will be highlighted by a luncheon, sponsored by the Russian River Farm Bureau Center in Alexander Valley, an art exhibit in the Villa Chantecler and an antique show at the Alexander Valley Church.

The local sojourners will watch prune processing and packing at the Timber Coast farms and visit the Italian-Swiss Colony Winery at Asti.

According to Wagner the Healdsburg Chamber of Commerce has set the date of the tour for March 23.

MEMBERS OF THE NORTH PENINSULA CIRCLE for the Florence Crittenton home will hold their group's annual meeting on Wednesday, March 13, in the home of Mrs. Theodore V. Tronoff, Jr.

Mrs. William Jabin, Mrs. Paul Hupf, Mrs. Paul Gill, Mrs. Jerry Stringer and Mrs. Eugene Crandall will be "hostesses" for the formal review of the year's activities.

In other news from the circle, Mrs. Edward Odenthal, chairman for the models for the annual Fashion Show and luncheon, Spring Serenade, has announced that models for the day will be Mrs. Michael Orlich, Mrs. Edward Morgan, Mrs. Eugene Crandall, Mrs. Harold Tonini, Mrs. Robert O'Neill, Mrs. Harry O'Neill, Mrs. H. Robinson Plate, Mrs. Jerry Stringer, Mrs. Donald Amato and Mrs. Edward Macklin.

Mrs. Thomas Bocci, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Poggio are co-chairmen of the event, slated for March 28, in the Thunderbolt Hotel in Millbrae. Persons desiring tickets may make reservations by calling the co-chairmen of reservations, Mrs. Frank Greenwood, or Mrs. William George.

LWV To Launch Drive For Publication Funds

During this election year, non-partisan material for voters will be compiled and distributed by volunteer efforts of League of Women Voter members.

To finance these publications, as well as other services, a finance drive will be held by the Provisional League of Women Voters of North San Mateo County beginning March 11.

Mrs. Edward Berry, second vice-president announced plans for calling on individuals who agree with the league purpose that, in a democracy, it is important for citizens to be informed and active in their government.

The League of Women Voters is known for its sponsorship of candidates' nights and its enthusiasm for getting people to vote.

In addition, the league supplies information about registration and voting, encourages discussion of governmental problems, researches and compiles information about governmental structures.

A Men's Advisory Committee, organized to assist the league in its contacts with the community, recently attended a luncheon meeting with league members to discuss plans for the finance drive.

These men included T. Kenneth Ulyatt, manager of United California Bank, South San Francisco; Peter Markovich, insurance broker, Daly City; Richard Mills, manager of Bank of America, San Bruno; Mort Levinson, insurance broker, Pacifica; Elmer Venturi, manager of Bank of America, Westlake; and Milton Bronstein, Bronstein's Music, South San Francisco.

Contributions are welcome from everyone, except candidates or elected officials. Checks payable to League of Women Voters may be sent to Mrs. Berry, 56 Parkwood, Daly City.

Kitchen Brightener

Good morning, good cooks.

Here's a delicious recipe that will make your kitchen brighter—for it combines apples and spices, and as it bakes your kitchen will be filled with that spicy fragrance. The result of your mixing, fixixing and bakin will be a tasty and unusual apple dumpling.

We had some for dessert after dinner with whipped cream and the ones that were left made delicious breakfast rolls. How's that for a double duty dessert?

APPLE DUMPLINGS

- 2 cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- Three-fourths cup milk
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 3 tart apples, chopped

Sift together the two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt. Cut the two tablespoons butter into the sifted ingredients. Add the three-fourths cup milk and blend into a dough. Place on floured board and roll into a rectangle about 10x12 inches and about one-half inch thick. Melt two tablespoons butter and brush over top of dough, and sprinkle with the one teaspoon cinnamon and two tablespoons brown sugar. Spread the finely chopped apples on top. The three apples I used made just about two cups.

Roll up the dough, as you would a jelly roll and cut into twelve equal slices. Place the slices, cut side down in a buttered pan, 9x13 inches. Pour over them the sauce and bake in a 400-degree oven about 30 minutes, or until nicely browned.

DUMPLING SAUCE

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup hot water
- 1/2 lemon, sliced

Mix the one cup sugar with the one tablespoon flour and one-half teaspoon salt. Add the one tablespoon butter, one-half lemon sliced thinly, and the one cup hot water. Stir until well mixed. Cook three minutes and pour over unbaked dumplings.

Speaking of delicious desserts, this Mocha Cream Pie fits right into that category and has the added attraction of being easy to make and looks elegant.

I'd better start off by giving you a recipe for a pie crust, for the crust has to be made and cooled ahead.

PERFECTLY EASY PIE CRUST

- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 to 3 tsp. water

Sift the one and one-half cup flour and one teaspoon salt into a bowl. Cut in the one-half cup shortening. Sprinkle with the cold water. Toss with a fork as you add the water. Place on waxed paper. Knead three times. Press into ball. Let stand at room temperature 15 to 20 minutes. Roll out. Place in 9-inch pie pan, flute the edges and prick with a fork. Bake in 350-degrees for 12 minutes, then raise the heat to 425-degrees to brown nicely. (Keep an eye on it after you raise the oven heat.)

You will have some pie crust dough left over, just roll it out, place it on a baking sheet, prick with a fork and sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar cut into strips. Bake along with the pie shell. Remove when brown. Yum.

MOCHA CREAM PIE

- 3 cups miniature marshmallows
- 1/4 cup water
- 2 tablespoons instant coffee
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1 9-inch baked pastry shell

Melt two cups miniature marshmallows with the one-fourth cup water and the two tablespoons instant coffee in double boiler; stir until smooth. Chill until slightly thickened; mix until well blended. Fold in the whipped cream and the remaining one cup marshmallows; pour into crust. Chill until firm. Garnish with chocolate curls, if desired.

With two dessert recipes in the column I'd better finish off with an entree recipe, lest I alienate all you good cooks who are on diets. This dish is a joy, using ground beef and to make it fancy, adds a rich sauce, Meat Balls Stroganoff.

MEAT BALL RECIPE

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- Two-thirds cup chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- Two-thirds cup evaporated milk
- 2 tablespoons butter

Mix together the one pound ground beef, one-fourth cup bread crumbs, two-thirds cup chopped onion, one teaspoon salt, pepper and two-thirds cup evaporated milk. Shape into balls. Melt the two tablespoons butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the meat balls, turning occasionally to brown on all sides. While meatballs are browning prepare the following sauce.

STROGANOFF SAUCE

- 1 can (4-oz.) sliced mushrooms
- 1 can (8-oz.) tomato sauce
- One-third cup flour
- One-eighth teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1 cup teaspoon garlic salt
- 1 cup evaporated milk
- 1 cup water
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice

Drain the one can mushrooms, saving liquid. When the meatballs are browned, push to the side of skillet. Add the drained mushrooms and brown over medium heat, stirring occasionally. Add enough water to the mushroom liquid to make one-half cup, then pour over meatballs. Add the one can tomato sauce. Bring to boil, over medium heat. Cover skillet tightly, turn heat to low and simmer 15 minutes. Remove from heat. Sprinkle with the one-third cup flour, a little at a time, stirring to blend.

Sprinkle the one-eighth teaspoon pepper and one-fourth teaspoon garlic salt over. Slowly stir in the one cup evaporated milk, then the one cup water and one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Cook uncovered over low heat, stirring occasionally, until thickened, 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in lemon juice and serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

Serve over 3 cups hot cooked rice, tossed with 2 tablespoons butter and mixed with 1 package (10-oz.) frozen peas, cooked and drained.

Jefferson P-TA Council Backs College Issue

The Jefferson Council, Parent-Teacher Association, has unanimously endorsed the San Mateo Junior College District bond-tax proposals scheduled for vote on Tuesday, March 26.

Comprising 12 elementary schools and two high schools, the Jefferson PTA Council is one of the largest in the county, with more than 10,000 members represented in the 14 units.

The endorsement gave particular emphasis to the importance of completing Skyline College in North County by 1969 to accommodate the hundreds of Jefferson district high school graduates seeking a college education.

Skyline College, located near Pacific Heights on Junipero Serra Boulevard, will, at the outset, be prepared to handle 2,000 North County students and will eventually be expanded to a capacity of 8,000.

Skyline, in addition to complete academic courses, will offer aerodynamics and other skills in the trade skills. The endorsement came following an address by Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, President of the college district, at a meeting held at Westmoor High School. Mrs. Michael Kerekes, President of the council, presided. Endorsement talks were made by Mrs. Peter Markovich and Mrs. Raymond Milton, who are active on the Citizens Committee for the College Crisis Campaign.

Mental Health Study Completed By the AAUW

The final meeting in a series was held by the San Bruno branch of the American Association of University Women studying the mental health facilities in San Mateo County.

Taking part in the panel discussion were Paul Schwabacker, Executive Director for the San Mateo County Mental Health Association; Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald; and Dr. Howard Guerovitz, Assistant Program Chief in charge of the North Company Mental Health Center in Daly City.

A broad and informative discussion, it included possibilities for private as well as public assistance to fill the mental health needs of the county.

The committee will now send its results to the California State Division of AAUW for possible inclusion in the state's legislative program.

A copy of the report, which will include written resources and speakers, is available to interested teachers or organizations from Chairman Mrs. Dennis O. Johnson, 2865 Fleetwood Drive, San Bruno.

Mrs. Johnson expressed the committee's approval of Governor Reagan's recent 14-point mental health program which included some proposals the committee had considered.

This, however, will be the only new class starting until next September. Registration for the six-week course is $5 and is now being taken at the Recreation Department Office, 170 Santa Maria Avenue.

D.C. Pie Eating Contest For Kids (and a Puppy)

The Westlake School playground was scene of a traditional apple and berry pie-eating contest and it is still a popular, fun event, according to officials of the Daly City Recreation Department.

In the girl's division, Marla Riley placed first, Theresa Isom gulped into second place and Toni Raeta managed a third place on berry pie.

The boy's division was a more closely fought race with 20 hungry fellows getting pie down faster than you could bake them. There was one rule in the race that made it difficult to win — no hands on the pie — so there were plenty of clean hands but the faces were not so lucky.

Dany Walker came in first, Matt Griffin came in second and Vincent Rovai was third.

Not qualifying, but still entering was Stanley Jacob's puppy that finished last in every division but still enjoyed it.

Special mention was given to Gail Parker for her assistance and ideas. Others entering were: Kathy Isom, Vallery Rovai, Laura Sherwood, Kathy Bellach, Susan Gildea, who received a special good sportsman award, Ricky Raeta, Tony Lee Raeta, Ken Perotti, Kathy Rozakis, Grotos Rozakis and their little sister Mary.

Ben Aragona, John Kavanagh, Andy Mascheroni, Steve Riley, Mitch Hanick, Jerry Perotti, Richard Weis, Greg Gildea and Larry Weinberg were among the happy losers with plenty of freshly baked pies for everyone.

Troop 129, Explorer Post Hold Joint Family Dinner

Boy Scout Troop 129 and Explorer Post 129 recently held a joint family dinner and Court of Honor at the Ben Franklin Multi-use room, attended by more than 125 Scouts and parents.

Highlight of the evening was a sale of cakes baked and decorated by the Scouts.

The Troop Mothers' Club derived a profit of $20 from the spirited sale, led by auctioneer Brad Cloonan.

Awards were given as follows:

Tenderfoot rank to Mark Lucas, Mario Flores, Fred Wood, Eddie Boutte, Ray Doyle, Mark Harvin, Randy Pettit, Kevin Gilded, Andy Connolly, Don Chambers, Jerry Fiorucci, and Cameron Morton.

First Class rank was awarded to Bob Runnels, and merit badges were given to Brad Cloonan for swimming, music, and home repairs, and to Mike Brandt for soil and water and conservation of natural resources.

Results of the recent troop election showed Brad Cloonan as new Senior Patrol Leader; Jim Morton as Assistant Senior Patrol leader, and John Roller as Quartermaster.

New Patrol Leaders are Bob Runnels, Scott Molver and Ron Ritzman. Mike Brandt advances to assume responsibilities as Junior Assistant Scoutmaster.

Both groups are sponsored by the Hope Lutheran Church, and an active year is planned for each. Next outing for Troop 129 is hike to the top of Mt. Tamalpais this month, and the Post is planning to put their racing hydroplane in the water for the first time this season.

Post 129 just completed a trip to Squaw Valley, and the troop will make a snow trip also. Both groups will have a booth at Scout-o-Rama.

St. Martin's Episcopal Stages Pancake Supper

Organist Nancy Leekley, assisted by her children, Virginia, Bruce and Philip, and choir director Michael Bloch spearheaded the recent Shrove Tuesday pancake supper held at St. Martin's Episcopal Church.

Other choir members who served and cooked the supper for well over 100 parishioners included Betty Casey, Kay Hoover, Alice Ahmed, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Olson and Mrs. Harry Smith and her children, Harry, Charlie, Kathleen and Gloria. Carla Williams and Lois Kourik and Terry McGowan of the Youth Group of the church were among the other volunteer aid.

Also helping were Greer Watts, Jack Van Zandt, Carmen Ikehara, Barbara Busetto, Mr. and Mrs. Reece Middleton, and the Rev. George A. S. Hollywood, vicar of St. Martin's.

Other Lenten activities began with Holy Communion services celebrated on Ash

Wednesday and will be held on each subsequent Wednesday, during the 40-day preparation for Easter.

Another highlight of the season will be the visit of the Rt. Rev. Kilmer Mayers, Bishop of California, on March 24.

Bishop Myers will be present at the 8 a.m. Holy Communion and will celebrate and preach at the 10 a.m. service, which will be followed by coffee and an informal discussion period with the Bishop.

Sequoia, M-A Set Adult Driver Brush-up Courses

A Defensive Driver Course will be given at Sequoia Adult School, Broadway and Brewster, Redwood City, beginning Thursday, March 21 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Sign up is on a first come first served basis. Office hours in room 47 Sequoia High School are 8 a.m.-12 noon, and 12:45-4:45 p.m. Monday through Friday and 6:15-10:15 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

The course also will be given by Menlo-Atherton Adult School at Little House, 800 Middle Road, Menlo Park, beginning Monday April 15, 3:30-5:30 p.m. Office hours at M-A Adult School at Ravenswood Avenue at Middlefield Road, Atherton, are 9 a.m.-12:30 p.m. and 1-4:30 p.m. as well as 6:45-10:15 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

The National Safety Council Defensive Driver Program is a safety-brush-up course for licensed experienced drivers. The course consists of eight hours of classroom instruction and stresses defensive driving measures, proved techniques for sighting and keeping clear of potentially dangerous driving situations.

Defensive driving is credited with helping professional drivers chalk up hundreds of thousands of miles without accidents. Now these techniques are being taught to everyone through a nationwide program developed by the National Safety Council.

These courses will be taught by Tony Steiner, a certified National Safety Council instructor, who is also a regular teacher in the Sequoia district.

Local UROC Elects Its New Officers

Officers and directors of the mid-Peninsula unit of United Republicans of California for 1968 were elected recently.

They are: Dr. Maurice A. Bliss, president; Kieth Summershays, G. J. Owens, Dr. Florence Lewis, vice presidents; Frances Stoker, recording secretary; and Lillian Ferguson, corresponding secretary; William Burchett, treasurer. Mark Lane, A. Mason Blodgett, William Roman, Carol Schick, Morton D'Evelyn, Gus Waggeman and Marge Werolin, directors, and George McQueen, director of publicity.

Speaker at the meeting last week was County Republican Central Committee Chairman Bruce Mitchell; his subject "Victory in '68."

Upcoming speakers for March and April include O. Kenneth Pryor, member of Governor Reagan's Committee on Efficiency and Cost Control; and John Mills, Consul General, Republic of South Africa.

Anyone interested in joining this Republican volunteer organization may call Mrs. Ferguson.

Brenda Peak Wins Award

Mrs. Jeannette Mattern of Mountain View, chairman of the California YR's "Hardcharger" committee, verified today that Brenda Peak of Burlingame has won the bronze award from the Young Republican National Federation.

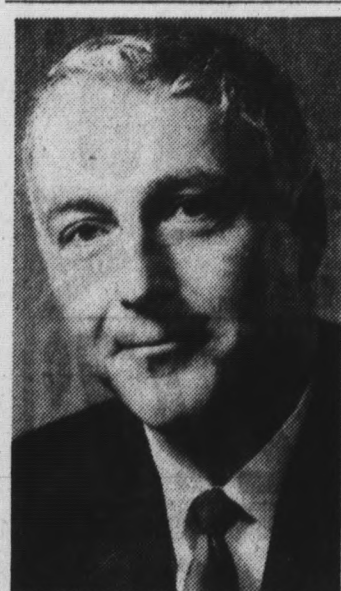

This is the first such award earned by any member of the Young Republicans in San Mateo County.

"Brenda Peak in achieving this goal has continued to demonstrate the kind of leadership and dedication that has made her one of the outstanding Young Republicans in this area," Stephen J. Lewis, chairman of the State YR organization, commented.

The bronze award is the result of registering new people to the GOP, attracting new members to the Young Republicans, and other positive actions that benefit both the Young Republicans and the Republican party in general.

"During this election year, I hope that many more of our members fulfill the requirements of this award. Brenda, I am sure, will go on to win the silver and gold awards," Lewis said.

"This kind of program is an example of what the California YR's are stressing this year. If all of our members throughout the state earn a bronze award, it will be a great step toward insuring a Republican victory next November."

LOUIS F. MUSSO, JR., has been promoted to assistant vice president in the personnel department of Wells Fargo Bank's San Francisco head office.

Musso joined the Bank in 1939 in San Francisco and later was assigned to the Burlingame and Menlo Park offices. He and his wife Yolanda reside with their family in Burlingame.

Free Displays Planned For Centennial

A myriad of exciting and unique displays will be presented March 11-17 as Redwood City climaxes its ten-month Centennial celebration with a dramatic "Exhibits of the Future" program at the Veterans Memorial Building, 1455 Madison Avenue.

Free to the public, the presentation will feature large-scale displays by international and national organizations and business firms, and will be open from 7-9:30 p.m., Monday, March 11, and from 4-6 p.m. and 7-9:30 p.m., March 12-17.

The FBI is flying materials direct from Washington, D.C., for display in the Redwood City exhibit, according to Arthur H. Hausman, co-ordinating chairman for the sponsoring Redwood City Centennial, Inc.

Other exhibits of space-age ideas and concepts will be presented by Ampex Corp., Marine World, Philco-Ford Corp., Lenkurt Electric, Pacific Telephone, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the U.S. Navy and many others.

The week-long display is part of the city's "Look to the Future" salute, the final activity in Redwood City's program of celebration events.

As a final touch to the over-all program, Redwood City Centennial Inc. will sponsor a community dinner to be held simultaneously at four dinner sites in Redwood City, beginning at 7 p.m., Wednesday, March 20.

Saturday morning's meeting was held in response to a mass meeting held several months ago to air views and opinions about the need for work on the proposed Eastside Park Recreation Center in the heart of the city's Negro district.

Navy Commander M. Scott Carpenter, former Astronaut, now an Aquanaut with the Navy's Deep Submergence Systems Project, will be the keynote speaker at all four dinners. Dinner tickets, selling for $6 each, are available at the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, Middlefield Road and Jefferson Avenue, according to William R. Barnett, ticket sales chairman.

SC Chamber Honors City Service Clubs

Second annual San Carlos Service Club Recognition Day luncheon sponsored by the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce was held last week at the Carousal du Soleil restaurant in San Carlos.

Club representatives were: Mrs. Jean Orr Perry, Business and Professional Women's Club; Dr. Arthur Tonsager, Kiwanis Club; Dr. L. Howard Fenton, Lions Club; Jim Welch, Optimist Club; and Mrs. Lorraine Crow, Soroptimist Club, each outlining briefly activities of their clubs.

Dr. Julio L. Bortolazzo, president of the College of San Mateo and guest speaker at the luncheon said the old adage "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" must be taken seriously. He said he had great faith in American mainstream youth to come up with answers to some of the problems of today. He also stated that service clubs, such as those being honored today, are offering "the ounce of prevention cure" through their activities.

Brush After Meals

Brushing after meals not only helps to remove food particles from which decay acids are formed, but also helps to remove the bacteria that are responsible for producing the acid. So get in the habit of brushing after every meal.

Brush Thoroughly

Even if you brush after every meal, success in preventing decay won't be achieved unless you brush thoroughly. Use a good toothbrush that is in good condition.

Please ask your dentist about proper brushing of teeth.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth. Dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Susan Wiard, Alex King Recite Vows

Susan Jane Wiard and Alex King recited marriage vows recently at St. Stephen's Church and received guests afterwards at the Forest Hill Clubhouse.

Susan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wiard of Daly City, wore a bouffant white lace gown with a square neckline, long sleeves and a train. A tiara of lace and pearls caught her shoulder-length veil, and she carried a flower-covered white Bible.

Jill Wiard was her sister's maid of honor, and Anna King, sister of the bride, was the quise satin gowns and carried white chrysanthemums and ivy. Dina Compana of Walnut Creek was the flower girl, and Patrick Mullins carried the rings.

Robert King was his brother's best man. Both are the sons of Mrs. Alla King of San Francisco. Guests were seated by Michael McCallum, Steve Wiard and Jim Davis.

The Rev. James Casey performed the ceremony.

THE ALEX KINGS (Susan Wiard)

The new matron was graduated from Westmoor High School and the College of San Mateo. She also is past honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 255, South San Francisco. Her husband is an alumnus of George Washington High School and will graduate in June from San Francisco City College.

The couple will live in Daly City.

THE HALLS will resound with the sound of music when the ladies of the North Peninsula Circle of the Florence Crittenton Home start blowing their horns about the fashion show and luncheon they are giving to benefit the home. The music makers are (from left) Mrs. Thomas Bocci Jr., co-chairman of the event; Mrs. Charles Poggio, luncheon chairman; Mrs. Robert Mahoney and Mrs. Richard Coltrell, investment co-chairmen. The theme of the fashion show is "Spring Serenade."

Spicy Chocolate Souffle Is A Guest-Dazzling Dessert

Hot from the oven and light as a snowflake (well, almost,) this spicy chocolate souffle was perfected for your dining pleasure by home economists using always-smooth evaporated milk.

Guest-dazzling souffles in the modern "evap" manner are practically foolproof if you follow these simple directions — to the letter.

Preheat oven and in order to make sure temperature remains constant, do not open while the chocolate is baking. Serve the moment it comes from the oven. Pass the rum-flavored Foamy Sauce for individual spooning.

Makes eight servings.
1 cup evaporated milk
1-3 cup all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup (one 6-ounce package) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
4 eggs, separated
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
1-3 cup sugar
* Foamy sauce

Pour evaporated milk into top of double boiler. Add flour and salt; beat with rotary beater until smooth. Add semi-sweet chocolate morsels to milk mixture. Place over hot water and stir occasionally until chocolate is melted; beat until smooth.

Remove from heat. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating after each addition. Wash beater thoroughly before beating egg whites.

Add cream of tartar to egg whites in large bowl; beat until stiff but not dry. Gradually add sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold in chocolate mixture. Pour into an ungreased 2-quart casserole. Bake in a slow oven, 325 degrees, 1 hour. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar. Serve immediately with Foamy Sauce.*

*Foamy Sauce. In top of double boiler, beat together 1 whole egg and 1 additional egg yolk. Stir in ¾ cup evaporated milk, 2 tablespoons sugar and ¼ teaspoon salt. Stir constantly over boiling water until slightly thickened. Remove from heat; stir in 1 teaspoon rum flavoring. Cool quickly by immersing pan in cold water. Beat remaining egg white until stiff; beat in 2 tablespoons sugar; stir in cooled sauce. Makes 2 cups or enough for Spicy Chocolate Souffle.

Cheese Rice Ring A-1 Serving Dish

This party-looking cheese rice ring becomes a one-serving dish meal thanks to the high quality protein of the cheese, when filled with well-buttered peas or other green vegetables and surrounded by a garnish of tomato wedges and parsley. A serving dish of dairy sour cream on the side for topping the tomato wedges. Recipe makes eight servings.

1 teaspoon salt
3 cups grated sharp Cheddar cheese
3 eggs well beaten
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pour into a well-buttered ring mold. Set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate, 375 degree, oven 55 to 60 minutes, until delicately browned. Place on large warmed plate and fill center with buttered vegetables. Garnish as suggested above.

Corned Beef 'Hawaiian'

Something as ordinary as corned beef hash from a can will take on Hawaiian airs when served with pineapple slices from a can. Simply cut the hash from a one-pound can into four slices, place each on a pineapple slice and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 15 minutes.

Cut Calories

Many meats will be lower in calories as well as more palatable if you heed the recipe instruction of pouring off drippings after browning.

Bavarian Ginger Cream Cake Treat

This Bavarian Ginger Cream Cake could well be a June Dairy Month specialty... but why wait. The top layer of whipped cream and pineapple lightly spiced with ginger has a delectable flavor and exquisite texture that takes on even more elegance when placed over a yellow cake layer and frosted with unsweetened whipped cream.

If served at a bridal shower, on Valentine's Day, or similar occasion, stick red hearts of paper or candy around plate to give it that certain feeling.

One 8-inch yellow cake, made from favorite cake mix
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water

1 cup hot canned pineapple juice
3 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground ginger
¼ cup sugar

1 cup crushed canned pineapple, drained
2 egg whites, beaten
¼ cup sugar
1½ cups heavy cream
Softened gelatin in cold water
Add hot pineapple juice, lemon

A Switch For Topping

To ½ cup dry bread crumbs, add ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon sugar and 1 tablespoon butter. Pile in centers of 4 canned Bartlett pear halves. Broil, about 6 inches from heat, until crumbs are toasty brown. Delicious for breakfast or desserts.

For a switch, add 1-8 teaspoon each of oregano, tarragon and parsley; 1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese and 1 tablespoon butter to ½ cup dry bread crumbs. Pile in centers of 6 canned Bartlett pear halves and broil until crumbs are golden brown. An excellent meat accompaniment.

juice and rind, salt, ginger and ¼ cup sugar; mix well. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Stir in drained, crushed canned pineapple. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks; gradually beat in remaining ¼ cup sugar and fold into gelatin mixture. Beat ½ cup cream; fold into the mixture. Reserve remaining cream.

Turn into a round 8-inch layer cake pan which has been rinsed in cold water. Chill until layer on plate, over which unready to use. Place cold cake mold the gelatin layer. (If necessary, trim gelatin to fit cake.) Whip remaining cream, do not sweeten, and use to frost sides and top of cake.

Sandwich To Hit the Spot

Hot sandwiches during cold weather do hit the hunger spots just right. You can come up with one in a hurry if there's canned luncheon meat on the shelf. Simply slice and place between bread, spread butter or margarine on the outside and place in waffle baker to toast until golden brown.

It's not new to suggest a hamburger for a hot sandwich, but one with variations may excite the interest. As one innovation, mix ground beef with deviled ham (one pound ground beef with one can of two and one-fourth ounces of the canned meat). Another uses equal parts of ground beef and lamb.

Apple Stuffing Will Go Well With Those Pork Chops

Pork chops and apples have a special affinity for each other in much the same way as lamb and mint sauce, or ham and mustard. And the ways to wed them blissfully are indeed deliciously endless.

In the recipe given below, notice that the hickory bits dressing is used to flavor the stuffing and then to baste the pork chops. It adds that wonderful fresh from a country smokehouse flavor that is so perfect for a hearty home-cooked meal.

TANGY PORK BAKE WITH APPLE STUFFING

6 loin or rib pork chops
cup butter or margarine
1 cup chopped celery
1½ cups diced tart apples
¾ cup bottled hickory bits dressing
1½ teaspoons salt
Dash pepper
7 cups soft bread cubes
Preheat oven to 350 degrees
In medium skillet, brown pork chops well on both sides; drain thoroughly.
In medium skillet, melt butter or margarine; saute celery 3 minutes. Stir in apples, ¼ cup hickory bits dressing, salt, and pepper; simmer 2 minutes. Pour this mixture over bread cubes; mix thoroughly.

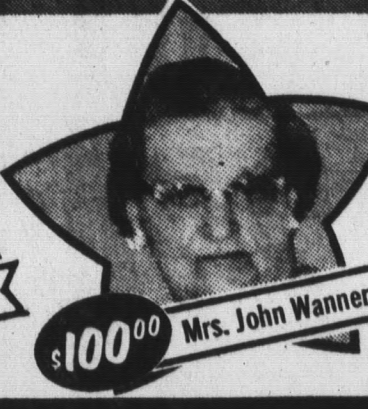

In round 2-quart baking dish, place bread mixture. Arrange pork chops around sides of dish at a slight angle overlapping one another. Cover with aluminum foil. Bake about 45 minutes. Uncover, baste with remaining hickory bits dressing and bake an additional 15 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Two Boys Held As Theft Suspects

Two 15-year-old boys who allegedly stole guns from two stores — one in Daly City — shot at San Francisco police early last week before they were apprehended in Golden Gate Park.

A spokesman for the Daly City Police Department said three men had come to their station shortly after 5 a.m. today to report they had seen two youths smash the window of the Colma Hardware store.

The driver of the yellow car, the trio related, jumped out, smashed the window and grabbed two .22-caliber rifles — one with a scope — from inside the store.

The suspects then fled in their car south on Mission Street.

The hardware store is located at 7340 Mission. The same car was later seen by Broadmoor police entering the Junipero Serra Freeway, from Washington Street, headed toward San Francisco.

At about 5:35 a.m., Daly City police monitored a San Francisco police call that told of a similar window smash and weapons and ammunition theft at a store at Forty-sixth and Judah in San Francisco.

A car matching the description of that used in the Daly City crime was seen here, police declared.

Cruising San Francisco patrolmen spotted the suspected car and hot pursuit began, with the chase in the autos ending at Nineteenth and Lincoln, when the two youths abandoned their vehicle and dashed into Golden Gate Park.

Using the stolen guns, the youths started shooting at the police officers, according to Daly City police sources.

The suspects finally were apprehended, one near the de Young Museum, the other along Twenty-fifth Avenue.

The rifles and ammunition taken in the Daly City window-smash were recovered.

Pacifica Favors Retirement Study

A study of the feasibility of providing an earlier retirement age and greater pension benefits for Pacifica police and fire department personnel was authorized Wednesday night by the city council.

City Manager C. W. Masonheimer proposed the initial study, which will determine whether or not the city will contract for an actuarial report on probable cost of the system.

Masonheimer's report to the council pointed out that 90 per cent of all California cities have an earlier retirement age for public safety employees, than Pacifica's current minimum retirement age of 60, and that most such employees receive 50 per cent of their base pay after retirement.

Retired police and fire personnel in Pacifica are now paid on the basis of 1.25 per cent of each year's salary.

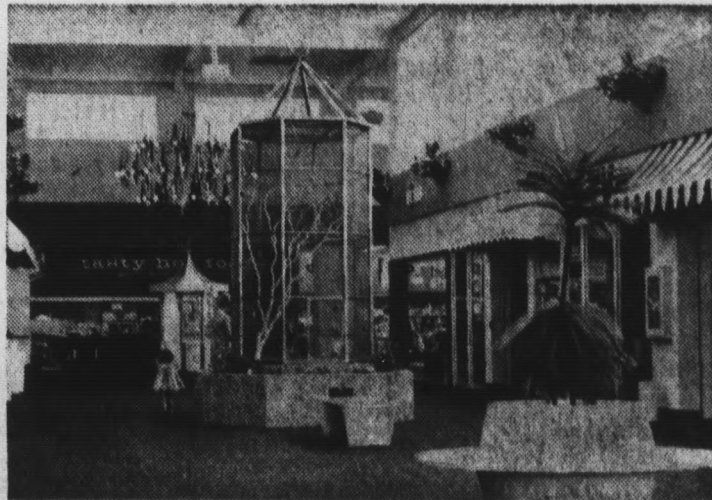

The manager's report indicated the proposed retirement system revision would represent additional costs for both the city and the public safety employees.

Police Chief Neil Tremaine spoke in favor of the retirement system change, and said he believed it would benefit both the city and the employees.

"As matters now stand, some men are practically forced to work beyond an age when their health warrants it," he said.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON

Finocchio's Features Las Vegas Type Revue

COMEDY AND GLAMOUR are the main ingredients of the new revue at Finocchio's, where the world's outstanding female impersonators provide an evening of entertainment that is long remembered. With chanteuse Al St. Claire as emcee, the show opens with a Las Vegas-type chorus number by the Eve-Elts. The mood switches to comedy with wacky Jackie Phillips, followed by torrid Latin dance by Bobby De Castro, just back from a South American tour. Billie De Voe, the "Male Park Avenue Hill-Billy" is followed by a fine new singer, Pryce Williams, and then dancer Reggie Dahl as the "Queen of Burlesque." Lanky Elton Paris, with songs and droll humor, leads to the new Flamenco team of Jose and De Carlo. Memories of the days of vaudeville are presented by Francis Blair and Jean Evol as the "Two Old Babs from Oakland." Closing the show are Laverne Cummings, with songs in an elegant manner; Russell Reed, a 365-pound entertainer; and Lucian, the "Male Sophie Tucker," plus a finale by the entire cast.

Elton Paris

BONNY HELEN HART, who has entertained audiences up and down the West Coast, now presides at the New Southern restaurant's fabulous Chamberlain organ, Thursday through Saturday. The talented organist will be joined on Saturday evenings by her life-long friend, Alberto Sbarra, (she's the lovely wife of restaurateur co-owner Nick Sbarra), who belts out a tune in a manner reminiscent of Sophie Tucker. The popular twosome has appeared with such greats as Art Norkus, while he was at A. Sabella's on Fisherman's Wharf, and Rusty Draper, when he was beginning his career at the famous Rumpus Room... Phil Lehr's doctor, Ernest Schwartz, advised him to lose some weight. So Phil went on a steak diet, as many of the diners at his Steakery in downtown San Francisco do. Result: In nine days, Phil lost 12 pounds. And more to come — or to lose.

Art Norkus

DON DIANDA is back at his Doros gourmet restaurant in San Francisco after a short vacation with his charming wife at Lake Tahoe... Sandwiches served open-faced will be the order of the day when Chuck's Steak House opens for luncheon starting Monday, March 4. Owner Canning Stevens said the sandwich selection will include roast beef, turkey, ham, rubin and, of course, steak. A luncheon delight also, is sure to be the Chef's Salad, which will likely be on a par with the salads served during the dinner hours at this Borel Avenue steakery... Vince Licata's Delicatessen and Fish Depot is a natural for those stocking up with special goodies for parties at home. Almost every fish that swims is also on counter display for your choosing. When dining at Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant, step next door and take advantage of the toothsome delicacies.

Don Dianda

DAY IN AND DAY OUT, Dave Rasmussen's Shadows restaurant greets regulars who wouldn't think of dining elsewhere. Not only is the food, service and atmosphere behind the success of this famous downtown San Mateo dining spot, but, Dave, Duane Eckert, George McCaman and chef Bill Mills are all genuinely concerned with the comfort and well being of their patrons. "Pampered" is the way they like to have you feel... It's fun to take your date or wife to watch Art Alfinio of Rudolph's in Palo Alto, charcoal-broil your steak. Only USDA choice beef is used. Also enjoy all the salad and garlic bread you wish. A complete menu of zesty Italian dishes, such as oven-baked Lasagne, Linguine Marinara and Manicotti is also available. Prices are easy on dad's wallet... For a night, weekend, or even a week's retreat, Frank and Fannie Torres' Montara Beach Hotel on Highway One is an ideal "get-away-from-it-all" spot. All sea foods in season, served in many different ways, plus red meat, chicken and Peruvian specialties are served.

RIKKO, VALYA AND COMPANY continue to draw huge crowds to Mike Kourkoutakis' lively Alexi's Zorba Supper Club in Burlingame. Seldom is there an empty table when the authentic Grecian belly dancers perform in their two shows nightly. Trio Bel Canto, who broke all existing house records when they appeared at Zorba's last month, return by popular demand tomorrow night for an indefinite engagement... Response to the Sunday $1 Dinner Day at Hillsdale Farmers Market has been overwhelming. Each Sunday during the past three weeks has found the international restaurant complex jammed with bargain-conscious diners. One of the nine participating restaurants, San Remo Italian Foods, will be offering Lasagne (includes a tossed green salad and garlic bread) as their $1 Special this Sunday. San Remo is owned and operated by prominent Peninsula restaurateur Rudolph Alfinio, who, along with his brothers, also owns Rudolph's and the Menu Tree in Palo Alto.

Chuck Herschler's Spare Ribs Report

Bright Lights' pen pal, Chuck Herschler, who manages to sell a few Oldsmobiles between dine-out excursions, reports he and his lovely wife, Virginia, were fire-side dining room patrons at Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City, last week. Chuck's card read, "Everything you mentioned about the spare ribs served here is true — and Virginia and I will be back again next week."

Chief Tony's Italian cuisine is proving a big draw for Augie's Third Avenue restaurant. The seven course meals are really something to brag about at $3.50. Also catering to banquet groups, Augie's will arrange special menus for any occasion. The Hank Booker Trio, featuring May Joy, take over the spotlight on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Taste Tip: Boeuf Stroganoff as served at Bruno Scatena's International Joe's in Daly City. Filet of Beef, sauteed in sherry wine and blended in sour cream, the International Specialty is served with onions, mushrooms and vegetable du jour. This is only one of 20 international dishes on the restaurant's menu.

Lenten Dishes Are A Black Angus Specialty

For Peninsulars observing Lenten, the Black Angus Chuck Wagon has ordered exceptionally large amounts of fresh fish and sea food for smorgasbord dinners. Among the various other hearty main dishes, the Black Angus provides a daily fish or sea food entree, with choices ranging from prawns to fresh mountain trout, crab to Shrimp Newburg. The "All you can eat" price is still the astounding $1.75.

Famous orchestra leader George Liberace hosted a party (which include his 80 year young father, Sam Liberace, and wife, Eldora) at Nick's in Pacifica, last Sunday afternoon, and you can bet his very good friend vocalist Mary Ann Hay, who joins Nick's Friday and Saturday night entertainment, featuring the Dick Snyder Combo, was on hand to make them feel at home.

Understand Nick Gust will soon preem his additional Nick's restaurant, which is located on the site of the former Turtle, and just a few steps from the original Nick's, a Pacifica show place.

Nathan Cohn Enjoys Villa Chartier's Maine Lobster

Fame of the Villa Chartier's Maine Lobster (flown in fresh daily) reached the desk of San Francisco attorney Nathan Cohn. Without further adieu, Cohn gassed up his Rolls-Royce last night and drove a party of five to this distinguished San Mateo restaurant for a Maine Lobster dinner.

With Lenten at hand, suggest you bear in mind that the Villa Chartier and Lanai restaurants are specialists in the serving of sea food, as well as red meat and fowl.

Chief Karl Faigle is the culinary craftsman at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. Many delightful selections have been added to the menu for your breakfast, lunch or dinner scrutiny. Why not enjoy cocktails in the beautiful Seville Room before and after your dining room visit.

Dolores Stogden El Patio Favorite

Dolores Stogden is the attractive waitress who serves the palate pleasers during lunch time at Jim Llewellyn's El Patio Mexican restaurant in Menlo Park. Cheerful Dolores is quite knowledgeable of the various Mexican dishes featured here, and patrons unfamiliar with "South of the Border" food fare usually let her do the ordering.

Foster's Ranch- Style Breakfasts

Having been raised on a ranch and being a country boy at heart, your Bright Lighter still has memories of the breakfasts that were served after the cows were milked and the cream separated. You'll find the nearest thing possible to a ranch-style breakfast when ordering buckwheat or buttermilk hot cakes at Foster's Original Pancake and Chicken House in San Mateo.

The animated scene of Fisherman's Wharf beyond the wide windows of A. Sabella's restaurant can be observed either from the lounge or terraced dining room. To add lightheartedness to a sophisticated dinner occasion, Joe Marcellino's orchestra plays for dancing Monday through Saturday from 9 p.m.

No matter what the happy occasion — breakfast, luncheon, dinner, meetings, wedding receptions, celebrations, banquets or a leisure vacation, the posh Villa Hotel is the answer to any happy happening.

Coast 'Might Have Too Many Greenbelt Areas'

The City of Pacifica may be acquiring too many greenbelt areas for its own good, according to one member of the city council.

Councilman Nick Gust raised the question of whether or not the city can afford to accept a new open area in the Fairmont Subdivision Wednesday, prompting other council members to perform an inspection of existing greenbelts before ruling on the Fairmont proposal.

Gust said he feels the city is reaching its "saturation point" in the acquisition of parks and greenbelts, and acceptance of the new open space will greatly increase the load on city maintenance crews.

Fairmont developers have offered to spend about $5,000 to plant the proposed greenbelt, but Gust said maintenance of the grounds, rather than the initial planting cost, will be the major expense.

Mayor Grace McCarthy and members of the council will perform an "inspection tour" of existing park areas next week "to get a better idea about the advisability of assuming additional open space."

The council will consider the Fairmont offer at the next regular meeting, after the "inspection tour."

Pacifica Probe On Closing of Street

Pacifica councilmen Wednesday ordered a detailed study into the closing of a street in the Pedro Point area, after 30 residents presented a petition protesting the closing and subsequent "encroachment" upon the right-of-way by an adjacent property owner.

A steep section of Livingston Street, between Olympian War and Sterling Street, was closed several years ago after a serious automobile accident occurred. The street has a grade "in excess of 30 per cent," according to engineering reports.

Last year, the city's planning staff and public works department granted homeowner Charles F. Ralling an encroachment permit which allowed him to "scallop out" a section of the street in order to construct a driveway.

Ralling's driveway construction resulted in a two-and-a-half-foot drop-off in the middle of the street, rendering it unsuitable for vehicular traffic and bicycles, according to the petitioning homeowners.

The petitioning residents maintain the street should have been left open and passable for the use of school children on foot and for vehicular traffic "in case of an emergency."

One of the Pedro Point residents, Mrs. Phyllis Hoops, charged the city staff was "giving away public property" in granting the encroachment permit last year, and urged councilmen to "put the road back the way it was."

"In the event of a serious fire or earthquake, this street could be the only exit from the area," Mrs. Hoops said.

Councilmen ordered the engineering and planning staffs to investigate the feasibility of repaving the street for possible use as an emergency route.

If the street is repaired, it will probably remain closed except in cases of emergency, when it could be opened to one-way northbound traffic, councilmen said.

Meanwhile, city officials assured the homeowners a pedestrian and bicycle path along the right-of-way will be cleared and reopened.

Man Hurt In D.C. Accident

A San Francisco man was injured Wednesday when his car smashed into a palm tree after a collision with another car on Mission Street in Daly City.

According to Daly City police, Mrs. Stephanie Davidson, 38, of 54 Abbot Street, Daly City, was entering Mission Street, from Gambetta at 12:15 p.m. and her auto collided with one driven by Jess Lopez of 960 Moe Street, San Francisco, who was southbound on Mission.

The force of the crash sent the Lopez car into a palm tree planted in the divider strip on Mission.

Lawson Goes To SF Chamber

Ed Lawson, for the last two years City Planner of Daly City, has been named manager of the new city planning department of the Greater San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

A priority project of the new department will be to find ways to improve the City's spectator sports and cultural facilities.

Lawson also will be working with city committees on improvement of Fisherman's Wharf and higher use of certain city sites under jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission.

Lawson, who has also served on city planning staffs in Oakland and Merced, co-ordinated development of the California

State Capitol Plan in Sacramento, which is now being implemented by the Legislature.

A native of Sacramento and a graduate of the University of California, Lawson is a member of the American Institute of Planners, American Society of Planning Officials.

14 Are Injured In Three Crashes

Fourteen persons were treated at Mary's Help Hospital Sunday for injuries suffered in three traffic accidents.

Most seriously injured were Mrs. Juanita Ward, 38, of 718 Skyline Drive, Daly City, and Mrs. Dina Ercole, 67, of San Francisco, who were admitted with injuries sustained in a crash at Skyline and Alemany boulevards at 1:50 p.m.

Highway patrolmen said Albert Ercole, 72, made a left turn in front of Thomas J. Ward, 47-year-old baker, and was struck broadside. Mrs. Ward reportedly spent a "fair" night with an arm injury. Mrs. Ercole, who sustained rib fractures, was in good condition today. The husbands were released after treatment.

Six were injured at 8:40 p.m. when autos driven by Mrs. Jennie Dora Lutz, 49, of 125 Mirada Drive, Daly City, and Samuel F. Dimaggio, 60-year-old San Francisco warehouseman, collided on the Sullivan Street off-ramp from Junipero Serra Boulevard in Colma. Treated at Mary's Help for multiple injuries were both drivers, Charles D. Lutz, 51, George Lutz, 13, Mrs. Anna Dimaggio, 56, and 4-year-old Gary Saazar, 281 Alta Loma Drive, Daly City, who was in the Dimaggio car.

A three-car accident on Cabrillo Highway in Half Moon Bay resulted in injuries to four persons at 1:10 p.m. Patrolmen said it was a chain-reaction crash occurring behind a car stopped to make a left turn into Magellan Street.

Drivers were Wanda F. Storey, 53, of 109 Bonita Street, Moss Beach, John Mackey, 47, of San Francisco, and Harley A. Kelley, 19, of Sacramento. Treated at Mary's Help were Kenney, Mrs. Gloria Mackey, 46, Maureen Jackey, 12, and Suzanne Carter, 20, of San Francisco.

Children will use primary colors in acrylic paints. Instruction will include basic drawing and painting techniques coupled with art history through and including contemporary art. Minimum age of children should be eight. Parents are requested to pay for the first four lessons at the time of the first class. Further information and pre-class registration may be had by calling Enid Emde at the Dal Pac Gallery.

Three Nabbed For Shooting at Cars

Thanks to Jose Roa-Mejia, a resident of the Golden Eagle Hotel on Airport Boulevard, three 17-year-old San Francisco youths were apprehended as suspects in a wild shooting spree that saw windows smashed in over 35 cars parked in South San Francisco Friday night.

Police in the "Industrial City" said the youths, who were subsequently cited into Hillcrest Juvenile Court, were picked up in their San Francisco homes about three hours after a series of widespread acts of malicious mischief were reported. A South San Francisco police spokesman said the trio assertedly had entered the community via Arroyo Drive, and using two pellet guns, proceeded through the city to Airport Boulevard at the opposite end. As they drove down such thoroughfares as Arroyo, Alta Mesa, El Campo, Miller, Commercial, Armour, and Airport, the sus-

Too Early For Roosters To Sound Off

Now down on the farm, most roosters have the courtesy — the duty, indeed — to save their crowing for the first crack of dawn.

But San Bruno Police reported Saturday a couple of their veteran roosters let the pressures of the Big City get to them, and they plumb-forgot their manners.

"This is unusual," a police spokesman explained. It had been an extremely quiet night and early morning for the police; no real newsworthy activity, they said, until 3:20 a.m. today.

That was the time in the dark when a neighbor of the roosters in the 1100 block of Montgomery Avenue sleepily determined there had been too much crowing much too early and called police.

Something must have disturbed the birds — or their clocks were incorrectly set the dusk before.

It was not difficult for the dispatcher to measure the severity of the matter, for he could hear the crowing over the phone.

A police unit was rushed to the scene, however calm already had replaced the crow.

Evidently it was too early for the roosters. They had gone back to bed.

Jury Acquits Bruno Man

A Superior Court jury last Friday acquitted a San Bruno man of a charge of forcible rape.

The verdict was returned in the court of Judge Frank Blum where Lester D. Schall, 28, a cabinetmaker, had been on trial, charged with the rape of a Pacifica housewife last August 24 in Millbrae.

The victim claimed that she had been raped at knifepoint by a man who climbed into her auto after being signaled to stop the vehicle.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE

1968'S CRYSTAL BALL, PART II

Last week we mentioned just some of the things you can expect to see in home furnishings during the year ahead and this week we thought you'd be interested in reading about some of the other predictions for decorating for the next 12 months.

Some decorators are saying that mod will give way to a fresh, new design — youthful, colorful, cool chic, casually sophisticated — very functional and leisure minded, which will be expressed in the bright sheen of chrome, in plexiglass tables, in case pieces (buffets, chinas, dressers and chests) with contrasting color panels, in the use of upholstery fabrics to fully cover a sofa from top to bottom — legs and all.

The look of traditional elegance will still be very strong, especially in wood furniture where you will see new super-finishes.

The new designs might swing away from dark finishes toward lighter tones of brown, tan, honey, or gray-brown.

More suites and accent pieces will be made in painted finishes that will be translucent, permitting the grain to show through. They might tend to be smoother but still show effects of antiquing and glazing.

The fabric story will be one of texture, pattern, and color with nylon plaids that look like wool, cotton and rayon that resembles linen, matelasses, damasks and floral prints in big, beautiful patterns.

Pay us a visit for all that's worthwhile, both old or new.

This Quebec Pork Pie Is Made Ahead

A French-Canadian specialty that may be prepared ahead. Quebec Pork Pie Salad Bowl Fresh Fruit Holiday Cookies

QUEBEC PORK PIE
 1/2 pound ground lean beef roundsteak
 1/2 pound pork sausage meat
 1/2 teaspoon each allspice, cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg
 2 medium potatoes, pared and diced (about 1/2-inch cubes)
 1 medium onion, finely chopped (1/2 cup)
 1 9-inch pastry-lined pie plate and rolled-out pastry top (from a pie mix and unbaked)

In a 10-inch skillet over moderately low heat cook the beef and sausage, crumbling with flat tines of a fork, until beef loses its red color and all the meat is in small particles.

Mix in salt and spices. In a small saucepan cover the potato and onion with water; boil until tender; drain and mash, saving liquid; add enough liquid to the mashed vegetables to make mashed-potato consistency; add to meat in skillet; mix well. Turn into lined pie plate; cover with top pastry making several vents in it and sealing edges well. Bake in a 425-degree oven for 30 minutes. Cool, cover; refrigerate. Reheat in a 350-degree oven for 45 minutes. Serve at once. Makes six servings.

Store These Turnovers In Your Freezer

These turnovers may be stored in freezer and reheated. Minute Steaks Potatoes Lemon Broccoli Salad Bowl Mincemeat Turnovers Beverage

MINCEMEAT TURNOVERS
 1/2 pound butter
 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese
 2 cups unsifted regular flour (sift to aerate before measuring)
 1 1/4 cups drained prepared commercial mincemeat (from a jar)
 1 egg white
 Let butter and cream cheese stand at room temperature to soften. Turn into a medium mixing bowl and blend with a wooden spoon; gradually blend in the flour. Turn out on transparent plastic wrap and shape into a chill.

Cut dough in half. Roll out one half at a time on a prepared pastry cloth with a prepared stockinet-covered rolling pin to an exact 12-inch square; cut into 9 four-inch squares. Put a rounded tablespoon of the mincemeat off center on each square; fold over to make a seal well. With fork, prick top in several places. Place well apart on ungreased cookie sheets. Brush tops with slightly beaten egg white. Bake in a 425-degree oven until golden brown—about 25 minutes. Serve hot or reheat. Makes 18.

Streamlined Version Of Old Favorite

North Carolina Cheese Straws Beef Casserole Rice Salad Bowl Rolls Layer Cake Beverage

NORTH CAROLINA CHEESE STRAWS
 1 1/4 cups sifted regular flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1-16 teaspoon cayenne pepper
 1 1/2 sticks (3/4 pound) butter
 8 ounces sharp cheddar cheese, finely grated

Into a medium bowl sift together the flour, salt and cayenne. With a pastry blender, cut in the butter until mixture is like coarse crumbs. With your fingers, mix in the cheese so dough is evenly colored. Turn out on plastic wrap and form into a wide roll; cover tightly and chill. On a well-floured pastry cloth, with a floured stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out half the dough (keep remaining dough chilled) to a 10 by 6 inch rectangle. From the 10-inch side cut into 4 strips, each 2 1/2 inches wide; cut each strip crosswise into 1-inch wide strips. (Work fast so dough remains firm.) Place about 1-inch apart on an ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in a 375 degree oven 10 to 12 minutes. Roll, cut out and bake remaining dough the same way. Handling carefully, so straws won't break, store in a tightly covered tin box between layers of plastic wrap; use within a few weeks. Makes 4 dozen.

Lobster Thermidor An Elegant Entree

LOBSTER THERMIDOR qualifies as one of the most elegant of meatless party entrees during Lent, if one is observing yesteryear's traditional dietary rules, or anytime. The sauce, rich with butter, cream, milk and mushrooms, acts as both flavor blender and protein extender to create this truly "super" tasting entree.

4 lobsters (1 1/2 pounds each)
 1/4 cup butter
 1/4 cup flour
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon paprika
 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard

low heat; blend in flour, salt, paprika and mustard. Add milk 1 1/2 cups milk
 1/2 cup heavy cream
 1/2 cup sauteed mushrooms
 2 tablespoons sherry wine (optional or to taste)
 1 cup soft bread crumbs

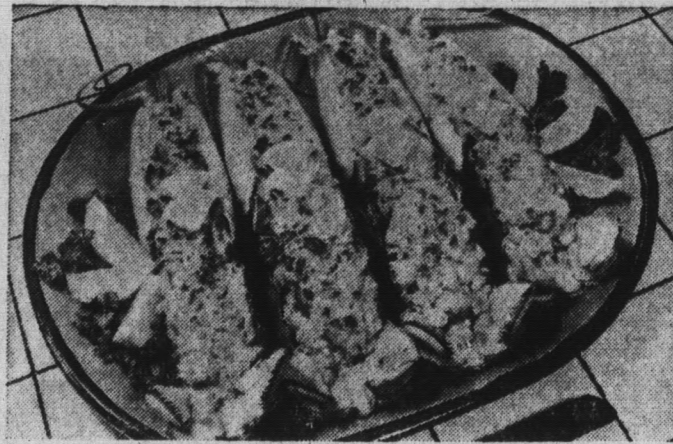

SAUCE

Next to opening a can of ready-to-use chocolate sauce, this recipe for same is the easiest that has come down the pike. For (6-ounce package) semi-smooth.

2 tablespoons melted butter
 Grated Parmesan cheese
 Buy cooked local lobster in fish and shellfish department. Remove meat from claws body and tail, keeping body shells for stuffing, if desired.
 Melt the 1/4 cup butter over and cream gradually stirring constantly. Cook until sauce is smooth and thickened. Add meat cut into bite-size pieces, sauteed mushrooms and sherry; spoon into lobster shells or individual casseroles.

Combine bread crumbs with the 2 tablespoons melted butter. Sprinkle cheese and bread crumbs over refilled lobster shells. Brown lightly under broiler. Garnish with lemon wedges and parsley. This makes 4 generous servings. If smaller servings are desired, split lobsters into half shells.

LOBSTER is considered by many to be the king of the shellfish. In this Thermidor, lobster combines with a sauce rich in butter, cream, milk, mushrooms, and sherry for an elegant meatless main dish.

Springtime Salad Treat

Place canned Bartlett pear halves, cut side down, on bed of leafy lettuce. Decorate with condiments to make faces: raisins for eyes; slice of maraschino cherry for mouth; coconut for hair. Other ideas: sliced olives for eyes; pimiento strips for mouth; grated Cheddar cheese for hair.

To keep down the foam when cooking dried beans, add a tablespoon of butter, margarine or salad (not olive) oil for each cup of the beans.

Quick Salmon In Casserole

In 2-quart casserole combine 10½-ounce can mushroom soup, 10½-ounce can tomato soup and 1 cup drained canned peas. Add liquid from 1-pound can salmon. Flake and stir in salmon. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Top with bread crumbs and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in preheated 350 degrees F. oven for 30 minutes. Serve with cooked rice.

Choose "springy-loose" heads of western iceberg lettuce for salads and sandwiches.

THIS ELABORATE-LOOKING Easter Basket Cake, so artfully filled with ice cream "eggs," is a fitting finale to a festive Easter dinner. Elegant as it looks, it is almost unbelievably easy to prepare.

Ice Cream Eggs Fill Easter Basket

Easter Basket Cake filled with artfully arranged ice cream "eggs" is a snap even for the most inexperienced cook. The cake, baked in a ring mold or an angel food pan, may be made from your choice of any cake mix or favored recipe. If time is of the essence, a bakery-bought angel food makes it even simpler.

The basket effect is achieved by frosting the outside and top with luscious slightly-sweetened and flavored whipped cream, or a fluffy frosting mix made according to package directions, then covered with green tinted or toasted shredded coconut. The frosting, of course, can be tinted any desired shade. When ready to serve, fill center and cover top with balls or scoops of chocolate, vanilla and strawberry ice cream. A pint of each will give you ten servings.

Strawberry

For each 4 servings, combine 1 tall can chilled evaporated milk and 1½ cups ice water. Combine 1 cup mashed strawberries (fresh or thawed frozen), ¼ cup sugar and 2 tablespoons lemon juice; add to milk and stir until well blended. Pour into glasses. Superb with gingerbread or gingersnap cookies.

The ice cream balls can be shaped ahead if time and "hidden" in the freezer ready for filling the basket.

Note: When frosting cakes with whipped cream, it should be done fairly close to serving time and the cake kept in the refrigerator or other cool or cold place.

Creamy Lemon Pie Is Dessert Delight

Lemon meringue pie has passed good old apple pie in the pie popularity polls, according to commercial bakers. Here we make a creamy lemon pie with a buttery gingersnap crust designed to surpass even lemon meringue as a family favorite. Top it with dollops of whipped cream for true elegance.

1 cup fine gingersnap crumbs
¼ cup (½ stick) melted butter
1 cup sugar

1-3 cup cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
2 tablespoons butter
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Prepare gingersnap crust by combining gingersnap crumbs with melted butter. Spread in an 8-inch pie pan. Press down firmly on bottom and sides of pan with fingers or back of a spoon. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 10 minutes. Cool before filling.

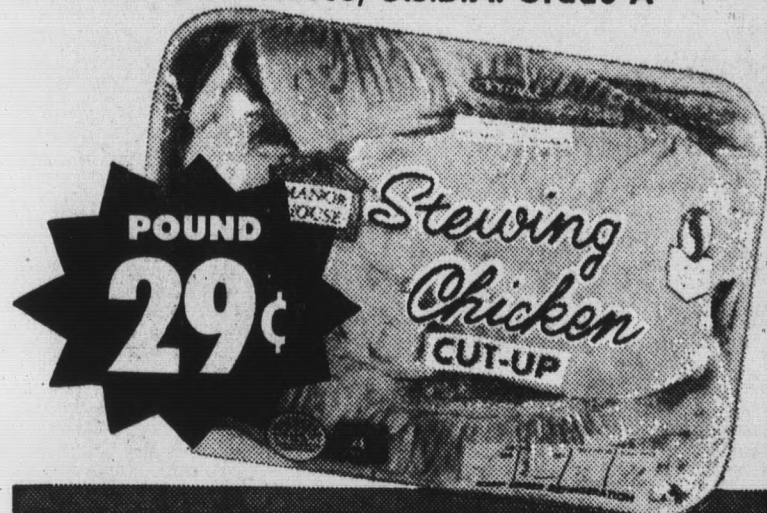

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt in top of double boiler. Add milk gradually, mixing well. Cook over direct heat, stirring constantly, until thickened and beginning to bubble. Add butter and stir until melted.

Add a little of the hot milk mixture gradually to the slightly beaten egg, beating vigorously. Pour this mixture slowly back into remaining hot milk mixture, stirring constantly.

Add lemon juice and rind and mix well. Cook over hot water or very low flame, stirring constantly, until just thickened. Cool slightly. Pour into gingersnap crust. Cool thoroughly. If desired, serve topped with slightly sweetened whipped cream.

(Post Columnist)

Furor at Jefferson

RARELY DO WE LISTEN to a medical doctor, even when we pay him a handsome sum of cash. But in the case of Sanford A. Marcus, M.D. (known to school board members and staff of the JHSD as chairman of the Citizens' Steering Committee), we have listened and read, and come up with a few of our own ideas on the controversy wracking the Jeff High School District.

The feud has resulted from a lot of things; namely busing of students (there should be more busing and less busing?), double sessions at Westmoor (something only hinted at) and the location of Serramonte High School.

ON THE FIRST POINT, busing: Inasmuch as the "Good Old Days" are gone and kids won't walk 20 miles to school anymore, we kind of go along with this recommendation. If it is used simply for the purpose of integration, we go along with San Francisco's Mayor Joe Alioto who recently confided (over a statewide TV network) that "busing is not the answer" to woe affecting integration of schools, there must be other considerations.

ON THE SECOND POINT: Double sessions at Westmoor High, we can only hedge our answer and keep our fingers crossed that this will never be.

ON THE THIRD POINT: Location of the new Serramonte High School we say, "bad scene." And there are an awful lot of local business leaders and politicians who agree with us—whether they will publicly admit it or not is up to them. They have given Yours Truly their respected views on the matter.

NOR COULD WE AGREE MORE with Doc Marcus that the Serramonte plan is "ill-conceived . . . improperly located . . . a mistake equivalent to the unfortunate construction of Candlestick Park (and you all know what a BOMB THAT WAS) is being rushed to completion."

For one thing, the site sits in an area that will not enjoy a high population growth rate (thanks to the silly school boundary between Jeff and South San Francisco districts) and students will have to be bused in to justify the facility.

Across the street (practically) high school students will tread southwards toward their own school—still within Daly City, but within the boundaries of the SSF Unified School District.

The only area left for substantial growth within the JHSD is San Bruno Mountain and environs. The question remains: Where will students who someday live in this area be bused? To Serramonte? Or is that planning too far in the future? Far as we can see that Serramonte site was indeed ill-conceived and the handle's getting hotter than the pot . . . sooooo . . . we better drop it!

But before it hits the floor, let's listen to a local leader (NOT Doc Marcus) who suggests the site be scrapped, Westmoor be added on to (now that the district is out of the State Aid thing) and points east be explored again.

GIVING IS BETTER THAN . . . But that isn't what Jefferson Elem. School District trustee George Perry thinks. At least that was the impression he left the folks with after the session the other night when he refused, in no uncertain terms, to lend the Daly City Information and Referral Center eight tables that are ready for the scrapyard.

Always looking out for the "Little Guy" trustee Perry allowed "there is no guarantee they (the beatup tables) will be returned to the district in their present condition."

And while three other trustees remarked what a fine job the Center was doing in providing free tutoring lessons to slow learners at Woodrow Wilson, Perry expressed concern for the taxpayers who paid for those tables.

One observer noted he hadn't seen such an outburst during a session since that fellow took off his left shoe and banged the table at the United Nations some years ago. Oh, how we wished we could have seen THAT.

We wonder if the trustees DO have any guarantee those tables will come back as broken down as they were when loaned. If those people at the Referral Center fix 'em up whose going to see that they are busted back to how they were when loaned to them?

SICK CALL DEPT.—Daly City recreation supervisor Ed Tomasello (also of the JESD trustees) knocked down by the hepatitis bug . . . D. C. Police Lt. Tom Culley back on the job after a bout with the bug . . . Culley's boss, chief Roland Petrocchi only plays golf like he has the bug (an inside joke we were bribed into including in this column).

DATEBOOK — The Hillside Homeowners' Association will hold a Candidates' Night at the (K-6) Intermediate school in Colma, on Market Street, March 18. The public is invited to attend and meet all the upcoming contestants in the Daly City race.

'Commercial' Meaning

QUESTION: What is meant by the term "commercial carpet?"

ANSWER: There is much public misconception over the word "commercial" in connection with rug advertising. While there are some types used for commercial jobs, factually there are no standards, no specifications which describe such covering. All types of carpet are laid on commercial jobs including inexpensive types. The phrase should not be accepted as a guide for high quality.

QUESTION: The material of my dress separated partially when dry-cleaned. Can I hold the dry-cleaner responsible? He says it is the fault of the material, not his.

ANSWER: Double-faced fabrics are made by taking two face fabrics and bonding them together with an adhesive. Many dry-clean satisfactorily but some cause customer complaints because of the partial separation which can show up initially in second or third dry-cleaning. A good cleaner knows this separation problem of double-faced fabrics and explains it to the customer.

FIRE TRUCK ARRIVES IN MEXICO —FROM D.C.

MAYOR JOSE TORRES of Madero, Mexico (left foreground) and his city councilmen, present keys of fire truck donated by Daly City to Fire Chief Valentin Yanez (in uniform) and several of his Bomberos.

They're Sleeping Easier Now

By FRANK LAPIERRE

The residents of Madero, Mexico, sleep a lot easier these nights and relations between that country and ours is a lot closer today, thanks to the year-long efforts of Daly City fire chief Herb Ritzmann and the city council.

And all because of an old fire truck that had outlived its usefulness as far as Daly City was concerned.

The truck, a 1941 Mack, had been declared surplus by the city and when chief Ritzmann informed the council that Madero (population 60,000) was badly in need of fire fighting equipment, it was decided to donate the still-usable apparatus to them.

After traveling more than 1,800 miles by rail car to the border city of Laredo, Texas, it was stopped cold by a bewildering barrier of governmental red tape.

Finally, after a year of letter writing between city officials on both sides of the border (along with side notes to other government agencies) Chief Ritzmann made a personal appeal to the President of Mexico and the much-needed truck was allowed to enter the country and proceed the remaining 300 miles to Madero.

Amid considerable fanfare and newspaper publicity the truck arrived in the coastal city on January 1 of this year.

Until the arrival of the "old" truck, Madero's only protection against fire was a 2,000 gallon tank truck with a small 60-gallon-per-minute pump mounted on the rear — hardly enough to combat any major blaze in the growing city.

The Madero Fire Department's technical advisor, Cecil H. Knight, recently wrote Daly City informing them of the arrival of the truck and the residents' reaction to the "new" vehicle.

"We are now the envy of all the fire departments in our State," Knight wrote. "I can tell you that everybody is very happy to have the truck here — and especially our firemen . . . now they can count on another truck to protect the city."

"All the firemen send you and your men our deep thanks for your great help," Knight said.

In another letter received last week from Madero Mayor Jose Zarate Torres, Daly City was sincerely thanked "for its gesture of good will in donating the fire truck to our community."

Flying Field Trip For Geography Class

PROBABLY one of the most unique and interesting geography classes was experienced recently by some 117 Jefferson High School students.

That was when teacher Al Griffin and his pupils took a flying field trip, which likely was well worth the $3 a student it cost.

Like an administrator summed it in a recent bulletin from Jefferson High District Supt. Ed Morgan's office:

"No, geography is not like it was back in the good old days when you and I were young, Maggie. Today they teach it in an airplane."

GRiffin set up three flights of 40 students each so they "could get another perspective on the subject they were studying."

He noted that this "was a way of making relevant some of the important concepts" he has been dealing with in the classroom.

It also was an introduction to air travel for most of the youngsters.

Did they learn anything?

"Gee, Mr. Griffin, it's just like on the map!" exclaimed one student.

IT'S too bad more than just a light handful of parents showed up for the Fernando Rivera sixth grade's classroom program, "The Blue Willow," last Friday.

Done in the manner of a radio show, complete with mike and lighted "on-the-air" sign, the program featured various "reports" by students explaining the story line. Worth our trip, by golly.

More top Jefferson Elementary District officials showed up with interest than parents . . . but, it's true, the program WAS in the afternoon.

The cookies served as refreshment were great (please note, Nell Norton) . . . baked in the classroom, we understand, by the students themselves, using portable ovens brought from home.

THOSE GIRLS at Oceana High who don't mind exchanging a little facial cream for a lot of grease next year will have a chance to take a special auto shop course.

Teacher Harry McDevitt, we're told, has completed six years of planning on a girls' auto shop course that will be a "consumer type" — emphasizing fundamentals of the auto, maintenance, including lubrication, proper washing procedures, minor tuneups and the correct use of hand tools, as well as a simple machines and their names.

McDevitt says the advent of modular scheduling next year at Oceana makes the class offering possible.

Incidentally, he's been "thinking about" such a class for nine years.

'Passive Resistance'

By SAMUEL C. CHANDLER

As part of a Washington "Peace March" last October, a young man carried a sign reading "I don't give a damn for Uncle Sam. I'm not going to Vietnam."

A Saturday Evening Post article reports that 15,310 young men have not responded to the call of their draft boards . . . A large number of them — some reports say 10,000 have left the country, choosing to live as aliens and to cut themselves off from friends and family and all things familiar.

In Europe, American soldiers who have defected for reasons of conscience are publishing a paper containing the statement:

"We want to make it clear that our purpose is just to let the G.I.'s know that besides their officers, who are pro-war, there are people in the world who are against war . . . If a soldier decides the war he's being asked to fight is immoral, he has a right to disassociate himself from the military organization that he is with, and not just the right to do it; he has a duty to do it, if he believes that war is wrong."

(Newsweek, Feb. 26, 1968)

Such statements and such actions are viewed by some critics as part of a wide spread civil disobedience movement in America.

Civil disobedience is defined as the refusal to obey certain governmental laws or demands for the purpose of influencing legislation of government policy.

GENERALLY IT GROWS out of frustrations as stated by Dr. Martin Luther King: "The government never moves to correct a problem involving race until it is confronted directly or dramatically."

Advocates of civil disobedience view the individual above the state. — They speak of peaceful protests, of challenging unjust and immoral laws, of non-cooperation and of passive resistance.

Some critics of civil disobedience believe it leads to anarchism. They point out that civil rights cannot be achieved or maintained in the absence of civil laws that has been passed for the good of all men rather than a few dissident individuals.

They claim that history shows that the absence of a coercive force-government tends to raise individuals to power who destroy justice and liberty. They further state that civil disobedience tends to become an end in itself with leaders moving from one movement to another — from civil rights marches, to peace movements, to riots, to political organizations — never satisfied with results.

IN LIBRARY LANGUAGE civil disobedience is called passive resistance to government. Under this heading Readers' Guide lists some excellent articles. Among them are two articles that appeared in Senior Scholastic, "Civil Disobedience" Is It Ever Right to Break the Law published in the January 7, 1966 issue; "When Conscience and Government Clash," published in the January 13, 1967 issue.

The latest article listed in Reader's Guide is Joseph Wood Krutch's: If you Don't Mind My Saying So — in American Scholar 37 - 15-18 Winter, 1967.

Gaining on Hunger

A large part of the free world likes to pull the U.S. tail every once in awhile, but most of the same countries will quickly acknowledge that it is the U.S. and its food aid which has kept a number of them from going over the edge into abject starvation.

Secretary of Agriculture Freeman, speaking at the second annual international conference on the "war on hunger," pointed out that many of the developing countries with food supply problems improved their agricultural potentials during 1967.

Freeman credited at least some of the improvement to years of American assistance under Public Law 480, particularly the self-help features. Good agriculture weather last year also helped a number of countries improve their food production.

S.S.F., Hillsdale Clash Friday

Warriors Defeat Tough Five From St. Ignatius

Experts remarked in the pre-game analysis that the South San Francisco Warriors would have to play their finest game of the year in order to beat the St. Ignatius Wildcats in the first round of post-season championship action. They were half right.

The Cinderella five from the North Peninsula League played their second-best game of the long season last Friday at College of San Mateo but it was still enough to crush the West Catholic Athletic League champs, 76-67, in front of a capacity house of 1,900 frantic rooters.

S.S.F.'s victory abruptly ended the Wildcats' season but Bill Purcell's crew now advances to still another play-off clash with an even stronger Hillsdale squad next Friday — same time, same place.

Just two times during the entire contest did the Wildcats manage to pull even with the underdog Warriors. Both times were midway through the third quarter when SI edged ahead at 37-36 and 39-38. But the scrappy and smaller Warriors put everything together to pull out to a nine-point lead before the quarter ended.

"We just didn't have it on defense tonight at all," commented winning coach Bill Purcell. "They (SI) were off on their shooting but we gave them several opportunities inside. This wasn't quite as good a game as we played earlier in the year against Westmoor but it certainly is the most rewarding."

Utilizing a full-court press most of the way, the Warriors forced the action right from the start. The NPL crew pulled out to a quick 13-5 lead in the first period before a spurt by the Wildcats' Dennis Dolan closed the gap to 16-14 at the first intermission.

Play alternated fairly even until the late minutes of the second period when again the Warriors surged out in front as forward Alex Smith scored six consecutive points on an offensive tip, a left-handed hook and two free throws. But the Warriors made the mistake of trying to stall out the last two minutes of the half with a seven-point lead. The pressing and quick Wildcats stole the ball three times in that time and the Warriors left the floor at half-time leading at just 29-28.

Smith started the second half right where he left off in the first when he scored a bucket and another charity toss in the first minute of action. But he quickly got his fourth foul and retired to the bench with S.S.F. holding a precarious 32-28 lead. For the next few minutes Purcell was having fits trying to find the right combination as the S.S.F. quintet slowly but surely blew their lead.

quite used to that pace of running all game long. I think we got a little tired there at the end."

S.S.F.'s balanced scoring, the same formula the Warriors used all year, was led by Smith with 19. Then in descending order it was 17 for Murphy, 15 for Dick Young, 14 for center Steve Venters and nine for the clutch-performer Larios.

"We knew that they balanced out their scoring pretty well," Drucker said. "I told the team that this is what they would have to do to win. We knew they would and still had trouble stopping them."

SI's front line, meanwhile, minutes. Dolan headed the way provided all the offensive thrust with 22 points while center Steve Ferreboeuf came on three guards could get just two strong with his lean-in shots in buckets from the floor in 32 the last half to total 17.

Mentally Handicapped Children Compete in Sea Bowl Tournament

Pacifica's Sea Bowl was the scene of a countywide bowling tournament to determine winners from the group of over 100 mentally handicapped children, from the age of eight and up.

Mayor Grace McCarthy of Pacifica awarded trophies to individual and team winners.

"Lucky" Eldred Park, Beach and Recreation commissioner assisted the mayor. Pacifica Jaycees kept score.

The yearly contest is jointly sponsored by CHI-TE-PA, (Children's, Parents and Teachers Association) and the Peninsula Association for Retarded Children.

According to association president, Mrs. Flo Nelsen of Millbrae, individual and group winners will go on to compete in a district contest to be held in Walnut Creek.

Relay Teams Come Thru For Falcons

Crestmoor High School's relay teams provided the winning margin in a triangular track meet with Woodside and Terra Nova last Friday, breaking two school records in the process.

Crestmoor edged second place Woodside by a mere nine points, with Terra Nova trailing far behind at 24 points.

The Falcons' mile relay team, consisting of Greg Suzukawa, Chuck Bommarito, Barry Raymond, and Brad Markman set a new school mark of 3:36.7.

Raymond and Ernie Hall also teamed to tumble the Falcons' old 440 relay mark with a time of 46.1.

Junior Ernie Hall, also a standout on the football field, was the Falcons' star performer. In addition to anchoring the 440 relay, he won the 100-yard-dash and placed second in the shot put and 220.

N. Peninsula Girls' Softball Team Slated

Tryouts for a new girls "Triple A" softball team, to be known as the Northern Peninsula Sandpipers, have been launched.

Kay Hoover of Pacifica, listed as captain of the team, which is to be managed by Nick Sherwin, said tryouts were held last weekend in Pacifica and similar sessions will be held March 16 and March 23 in San Francisco.

Girls from 14 years of age to 18 are eligible for the team, it was announced.

"We are attempting to have a fine, wholesome bunch of girls who want to represent their communities in San Mateo and San Francisco areas," Kay Hoover explained.

"We have signed with the American Softball Association of California," she pointed out.

Jaycees Shape Rodeo Details

Hey, pardners, shine up those boots and saddles: The Pacifica Jaycees are making plans for their second annual "Rodeo by the Sea."

In conjunction with the rodeo, there will be a parade down Linda Mar Boulevard.

According to a Jaycee spokesman, "This will be the largest and most impressive parade in the history of Pacifica."

The parade will be held June 8, beginning at 10 a.m.

The starting point will be at Linda Mar Boulevard and DeSoto Street, and proceed from there down the length of Linda Mar, a distance of three miles.

"Invitations have already been sent out to many of last year's participants; however, we hope to encourage more of Pacifica's many community organizations and business people to enter floats for competition this year."

The theme of the Parade will be "Pioneer Days," and trophies and prizes will be awarded in various categories to winning entries.

More information on entries should contact parade chairman Dale Patterson, or rodeo chairman, Ray Fisher.

BARTD Shelves Contracts

Lack of funds has caused the Bay Area Rapid Transit District to shelve awarding of some $5.5 million in construction bids for stations in the East Bay — at least for two weeks.

The decision did not affect the Daly City terminus station for the rapid transit line, which is still in the design stage and not ready for construction bidding.

The Board of Directors voted unanimously during Thursday's meeting to delay the construction awards after learning that a move in Sacramento to tack an in-lieu surcharge on automobiles in the three BARTD counties would not pass.

BARTD had first hoped to get the funds needed for completion of the 75-mile system from added bridge crossing fees. When that suggestion was frowned on by the Administration, hope was held out for Assemblyman John F. Foran's (Dem.-S.F.) recommendation of placing a tax on private vehicles (from two to three percent). But this latest move was met with less than enthusiasm during talks in Sacramento between Assemblymen and Senators yesterday morning and BARTD's directors decided to halt further spending "for two weeks to see where we stand."

General Manager Bill Stokes said he wasn't sure where the district stood at the moment, commenting "it is definitely up in the air."

4 Youths Arrested After Car Hits Three Autos

Four North County youths were arrested last Friday after the car they were riding in smashed into three parked cars in San Francisco following a chase at speeds sometimes exceeding 80 miles per hour through busy Daly City streets.

The 16-year-old driver of the suspect car led officer Westlund up and down city streets and across the boundary into San Francisco before skidding into the parked cars in the 500 block of Athens Street.

None of the youths appeared to be under the influence of the drug at the time of their arrest, a police department spokesman said.

No one was injured in the crash, but all four cars were heavily damaged, police said.

The young driver was charged with possession of marijuana and driving without a license. His companions were arrested for possession of marijuana.

MORTAR MAN
U.S. ARMY, Korea — Army Private Louis T. Miller, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herod R. Miller, 234 St. Francis Blvd., Daly City, was assigned as a mortarman with the 7th Infantry Division at Camp Kaiser, Korea, Feb. 13.
